

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0913

Affirmed
Late Request for Hearing Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On July 12, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to register following the rules set by the Director and was denied unemployment insurance benefits beginning June 20, 2021 until the reason for the denial had ended. On August 2, 2021, the July 12, 2021 administrative decision became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On August 26, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing on the July 12, 2021 administrative decision. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's late request for hearing, and on September 2, 2021, issued Order No. 21-UI-173961, dismissing claimant's request for hearing on the July 12, 2021 administrative decision as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by September 16, 2021. On September 18, 2021, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 21-UI-173961 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On November 1, 2021, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because their response to the appellant questionnaire was late, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider it or issue another order regarding claimant's late request for hearing and that Order No. 21-UI-173961 remained in effect. This matter is before EAB based upon claimant's timely application for review of Order No. 21-UI-173961.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, which has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, EAB Exhibit 1 will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On July 12, 2021, the Department mailed the July 12, 2021 administrative decision to claimant's address of record on file with the Department. The July 12, 2021 administrative decision stated, in relevant part, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than 08/02/2021." Exhibit 1 at 1. The July 12, 2021 administrative decision also stated "If you do not understand this decision, contact the Unemployment Insurance Center above immediately.” Exhibit 1 at 2. The July 12, 2021 administrative decision provided a post office box address, two telephone numbers, and a fax number for use in contacting the Department. Exhibit 1 at 1.

(2) Claimant received the July 12, 2021 administrative decision during the week of July 12, 2021 but failed to file a request for hearing by the August 2, 2021 deadline because they “did not note that there was a deadline attached to making an appeal.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2.

(3) On August 26, 2021, claimant filed a request for hearing on the July 12, 2021 administrative decision.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late request for hearing on the July 12, 2021 administrative decision is dismissed.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

On July 12, 2021, the Department mailed the July 12, 2021 administrative decision to claimant at claimant’s address of record on file with the Department. The 20-day deadline for claimant to file a timely request for hearing on that decision was August 2, 2021. Claimant did not file a request for hearing on the July 12, 2021 administrative decision until August 26, 2021. Accordingly, claimant’s request for hearing was late.

In their appellant questionnaire response, claimant acknowledged receiving the July 12, 2021 administrative decision during the week of July 12, 2021 and failing to file their request for hearing by August 2, 2021 deadline. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant stated that they did not file by the deadline because “I honestly did not note that there was a deadline attached to making an appeal.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2.

Claimant did not establish that factors beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing a timely hearing request. Claimant received the July 12, 2021 administrative decision during the week of July 12, 2021. The decision advised claimant that they had the right to appeal the decision if they did not believe it was correct and stated that August 2, 2021 was the deadline for filing a timely appeal. Claimant failed to file an appeal by the deadline because they did not notice that there was a deadline. Claimant did not establish that this constituted a circumstance beyond their reasonable control that prevented them from filing their hearing request by the August 2, 2021 deadline. Viewed objectively, it was within claimant’s reasonable control to carefully read the July 12, 2021 administrative decision, take note of the deadline to appeal, and, if they disagreed with the decision, request a hearing by the deadline that was stated therein.

To the extent that claimant’s failure to file a timely hearing request was the result of a mistake on claimant’s part, claimant did not show that the mistake was an “excusable mistake” within the meaning of the administrative rules. The record does not, for example, raise a due process issue, and fails to show that any mistake was the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply.

Because claimant failed to show that factors beyond their reasonable control or an excusable mistake prevented them from filing a hearing request on the July 12, 2021 administrative decision by the August 2, 2021 deadline, claimant failed to establish good cause to extend the filing deadline beyond that date. Accordingly, claimant's late request for hearing is dismissed.

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-173961 is affirmed.
