

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-1094

Reversed
Initial Claim Filed May 1, 2020

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On August 18, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision denying claimant's request to backdate his initial claim to June 7, 2021, and concluding that he was therefore ineligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for the weeks including June 7, 2020 through July 25, 2020 (weeks 24-20 through 30-20) (decision # 70831). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On November 19, 2021, ALJ Griffin conducted a hearing, and on November 29, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-180601, affirming decision # 70831. On December 20, 2021, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's written argument when reaching this decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On April 29, 2020, claimant sent an email to oed_pua_info@oregon.gov to request a secure link to submit an application for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) benefits. This was in accordance with the Department's procedures for filing an initial claim for PUA benefits at the time, as the Department had not yet launched a means of filing PUA applications via their online claims system. Exhibit 1 at 2.

(2) On May 1, 2020, a representative from the Department responded to claimant's email with a secure link that would allow him to submit his initial application for PUA benefits. Claimant submitted the application the same day. Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant did not receive a response from the Department that indicated that they had received the application, nor did he receive an error message or any other indication that he had not transmitted the application successfully. The Department never received claimant's May 1, 2020 application.

(3) In July 2020, claimant learned that the Department had launched a means of filing PUA applications via their online claims system. On July 28, 2020, claimant filed a second application for PUA benefits via the Department's online claims system. The Department received the application and subsequently established the effective date of claimant's claim based on the July 28, 2020 filing date.

(4) At some point later, claimant claimed benefits for the weeks including June 7, 2020 through July 25, 2020 (weeks 24-20 through 30-20).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant filed an initial claim on May 1, 2020, which was effective on April 26, 2020. The weeks at issue did not precede the first effective week of the claim.

OAR 471-030-0040 (January 11, 2018) provides:

(1) As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

* * *

(b) An “initial claim” is a new claim that is a certification by a claimant completed as required by OAR 471-030-0025 to establish a benefit year or other eligibility period;

* * *

(e) “Backdating” occurs when an authorized representative of the Employment Department corrects, adjusts, resets or otherwise changes the effective date of an initial, additional or reopened claim to reflect filing in a prior week. Backdating may occur based upon evidence of the individual's documented contact on the prior date with the Employment Department or with any other state Workforce agency, or as otherwise provided in this rule.

(2) For the purposes of filing an initial, additional, or reopened claim:

* * *

(d) When filed by Internet, the date of filing shall be the initial date of transmission of the online claim

* * *

(3) An initial, additional, or reopened claim must be filed prior to or during the first week or series of weeks for which benefits, waiting week credit, or noncompensable credit is claimed and prior to or during the first week of any subsequent series thereafter. An initial claim is effective the Sunday of the calendar week in which it is filed. An authorized representative of the Employment Department will backdate an additional or reopened claim to the calendar week immediately preceding the week in which the request to backdate was made when a claimant requests backdating of the additional or reopened claim[.]

OAR 471-030-0045 (January 11, 2018) provides:

(1) As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) “Continued Claim” means an application that certifies to the claimant’s completion of one or more weeks of unemployment and to the claimant’s status during these weeks. The certification may request benefits, waiting week credit, or non-compensable credit for such week or weeks. A continued claim must follow the first effective week of an initial, additional or reopen claim, or the claimant’s continued claim for the preceding week[.]

After the hearing, claimant submitted documentary evidence—copies of his April 29, 2020 emailed request to the Department for a secure link to submit his application, and the Department representative’s response on May 1, 2020 which included the secure link—which the ALJ admitted as Exhibit 1. The order under review found that this evidence “was not persuasive that he submitted a completed claim for benefits (either regular or [PUA]) on May 1, 2020,” because the request for a secure link was “not an initial claim within the meaning of the rules,” and that, as a result, claimant did not actually submit an initial claim until July 28, 2020. Order No. 21-UI-180601 at 3.

However, claimant did not merely request the secure link: the record shows that he used it. At hearing, claimant testified that he received the secure link on May 1, 2020 and submitted his PUA initial application the same day. Transcript at 14. By contrast, the Department’s witness testified that after doing a “full sweep” of the Department’s systems, she did not find evidence that claimant had submitted an application on that day. Transcript at 6. Neither claimant nor the Department’s witness offered evidence which conclusively proved that claimant either did or did not file the application on May 1, 2020. Therefore, claimant’s first-hand testimony that he did file the application is afforded greater weight than the Department’s circumstantial evidence that he did not.

Because the record shows that claimant filed his initial claim on May 1, 2020, the weeks at issue did not precede the effective date of the initial claim, but instead followed the first effective week of the claim as required by OAR 471-030-0045(1)(a). Similarly, claimant’s claims for the weeks at issue did not constitute requests for “backdating” under OAR 471-030-0040(1)(e).

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-180601 is set aside, as outlined above.
