Late Application for Review Dismissed Without Prejudice

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On November 5, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served a Notice of Determination for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) concluding that claimant was not entitled to receive PUA benefits effective March 8, 2020. Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On December 14, 2021, ALJ Murdock conducted a hearing, and on December 16, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-182063, affirming the November 5, 2021 administrative decision. On January 5, 2022, Order No. 21-UI-182063 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On January 7, 2022, claimant filed a late application for review with EAB.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The application for review is dismissed without prejudice.

On January 7, 2022, the appellant filed an application for review of Order No. 21-UI-182063 with EAB. ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(b) required the application for review to be filed no later than January 5, 2022. The appellant's application for review is therefore late, and this application for review is dismissed.

The deadline for filing an application for review may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of good cause. See ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070 (May 13, 2019). If the appellant believes they have good cause and filed their late application for review within a reasonable time, the appellant may request that EAB reconsider this decision under OAR 471-041-0145 (May 13, 2019).

EAB will dismiss any request for reconsideration that does not include all five of the following:

1. The appellant must file the request for reconsideration within 20 days of the date this decision was mailed; the date this decision was mailed is February 15, 2022, making the deadline March 7, 2022¹ to file the request for reconsideration, and

¹ Parties only get 20 days to respond regardless of holidays or if the deadline falls on a weekend.

2. The appellant must include a statement on the request for reconsideration declaring that they sent a copy of the request to the other party, and
3. The appellant must provide additional specific details about the reason they filed a late application for review. For example, the appellant should include specific information about the date they received the ALJ's order, whether they read it, whether they agreed or disagreed with the ALJ's order, the reason(s) why they did not file the application for review before the deadline, how the reason(s) affected their ability to file a timely application for review, and any other specific details that might help EAB determine whether or not the appellant had "good cause," which means factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing a timely application for review.

In their application for review, appellant stated that they "originally submitted an appeal through the [Department] website," and later filed an application for review directly with EAB. EAB Exhibit 1. Appellant should provide details regarding when they filed the appeal with the Department, where online (or elsewhere, if in person or by mail or fax) they filed the appeal, what the appeal stated, and if possible, a copy of the appeal they filed. Appellant also alleged in their application for review that they received an email telling them that they should file an appeal through the EAB website. EAB Exhibit 1. If possible, claimant should provide a copy of that email and/or provide additional information regarding who sent the email, what it stated, and when they received the email, and

4. The appellant must provide the date the circumstances that prevented them from filing a timely application for review (which they listed in response to #3, above) ceased to exist, and
5. The appellant must provide sufficient information to prove that they filed their application for review within seven days of that date.

The appellant may file a request for reconsideration in many ways; please note that you need only file one request for reconsideration:

1. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to fill out the "File a Written Argument" form, available on EAB's website: <https://www.oregon.gov/EMPLOY/EAB/Pages/default.aspx>, or
2. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to send an email to EAB at OED_EAB_OFFICE@employ.oregon.gov, or
3. Send the request by U.S. mail or another delivery service, addressed to 875 Union St NE, Salem, Oregon 97311, or
4. Send EAB a fax at 503-378-2129.

DECISION: The application for review filed January 7, 2022 is dismissed without prejudice. Order No. 21-UI-182063 remains undisturbed.
