

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0084

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On July 15, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served a Notice of Determination for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) concluding that claimant was not entitled to receive PUA benefits effective December 6, 2020. On August 4, 2021, the July 15, 2021 administrative decision became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On October 29, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on November 4, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-178988, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by November 18, 2021. On November 24, 2021, Order No. 21-UI-178988 became final without claimant having filed a response to the appellant questionnaire or an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On December 16, 2021, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire. On December 29, 2021, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire was late, it would not be considered, another order would not be issued, and Order No. 21-UI-178988 remained in effect. On January 7, 2022, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-178988.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's written statement submitted with his application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 21-UI-178988, mailed to claimant on November 4, 2021, stated, "You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 21-UI-178988 at 2. Order No. 21-UI-176257 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any party may appeal this Order by filing a Request for Review with the Employment Appeals Board no later than November 24, 2021.”

(2) Claimant did not receive Order No. 21-UI-178988 in the regular course of the mail after it was mailed to him on November 4, 2021. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. In early December 2021, claimant contacted OAH and told OAH he did not receive Order No. 21-UI-178988. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. OAH mailed claimant another copy of Order No. 21-UI-178988 at that time. Claimant received Order No. 21-UI-178988 in the mail, and on December 16, 2021, claimant filed a response to the appellant questionnaire.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-178988 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1)(May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 21-UI-178988 was due by November 24, 2021. Because claimant did not file his application for review until January 7, 2022, the application for review was late. The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” in this case because claimant’s failure to receive Order No. 21-UI-178988 when it was first mailed to him on November 4, 2021 was a factor beyond claimant’s reasonable control that prevented him from filing his application for review on time. However, claimant did not file his application for review within a reasonable time after he received Order No. 21-UI-178988. Assuming that claimant received Order No. 21-UI-178988 on December 16, 2021, the same day he filed his appellant questionnaire response, claimant would have needed to file his application for review by December 23, 2021 for it to have been filed within a reasonable time. Claimant did not file his application for review until January 7, 2022, which was more than seven days from the last day we can assume he received Order No. 21-UI-178988. Because claimant did not file his application for review within a reasonable time, his application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed January 7, 2022 is dismissed. Order No. 21-UI-178988 remains undisturbed.
