

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0215

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On November 24, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged for misconduct, and was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective October 31, 2021 (decision # 92629). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On January 27, 2022, ALJ Micheletti conducted a hearing, and on February 3, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-185557, reversing decision # 92629 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. On February 9, 2022, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: The employer's argument contained the written testimony of several individuals that did not testify at hearing, and the employer did not show that factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control prevented them from offering this additional testimony during the hearing. The employer argued that they were previously unaware that they were allowed to present witness testimony at the hearing beyond the testimony offered by the employer's office manager. Written Argument at 3. However, the record shows that the employer received the Notice of Hearing mailed to the employer by the Office of Administrative Hearings on January 18, 2022. As such, the employer was provided adequate prior notice: (1) that "the parties will be tele-conferenced together so they can hear each other, the ALJ and other witnesses;" (2) that if the employer had "witnesses [they wanted] to testify at the hearing, at the beginning of the hearing [they should] tell the ALJ the names . . . of [those] witnesses; and (3) that any such witnesses should be informed "ahead of time that they will be called when their testimony is needed . . ." Notice of Hearing at 7. (Emphasis added). Likewise, by receiving the Notice of Hearing, the employer received adequate notice prior to the hearing that "[h]earsay evidence is admissible, but is generally given less weight than first-hand testimony." Notice of Hearing at 7. Therefore, pursuant to ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090(1)(b) (May 13, 2019), EAB is unable to consider the new written testimony provided by the employer, and has only considered information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision. EAB also considered the employer's argument to the extent it was based on the record.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-185557 is affirmed.
