

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0387

Late Application for Review Dismissed Without Prejudice

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On October 5, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served a Notice of Determination for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) concluding that claimant was not entitled to receive PUA benefits effective February 2, 2020. On October 25, 2021, the October 5, 2021 administrative decision became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On November 24, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on February 14, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-186339, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 28, 2022. On March 7, 2022, Order No. 22-UI-186339 became final without claimant having filed a response to the appellant questionnaire or an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On March 19, 2022, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-186339 with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's written statement on the appellant questionnaire form submitted with their late application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The application for review is dismissed without prejudice.

On March 19, 2022, the appellant filed an application for review of Order No. 22-UI-186339 with EAB. ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(b) required the application for review to be filed no later than March 7, 2022. The appellant's application for review is therefore late, and this application for review is dismissed.

The deadline for filing an application for review may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of good cause. See ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070 (May 13, 2019). If the appellant believes they have good cause and filed their late application for review within a reasonable time, the appellant may request that EAB reconsider this decision under OAR 471-041-0145 (May 13, 2019).

EAB will dismiss any request for reconsideration that does not include all five of the following:

1. The appellant must file the request for reconsideration within 20 days of the date this decision was mailed; the date this decision was mailed is April 7, 2022, making the deadline April 27, 2022¹ to file the request for reconsideration, and
2. If applicable, the appellant must include a statement on the request for reconsideration declaring that they sent a copy of the request to the other party, and
3. The appellant must provide additional specific details about the reason they filed a late application for review. Claimant stated on their statement submitted to EAB that they were “homeless due to Covid and . . . receive mail at [their] parents’ address and . . . don’t drive a car.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. This information suggests that claimant may not have received the ALJ’s order (Order No. 22-UI-186339) as soon as if they had been living at their parents’ address and drove a vehicle. Claimant should include specific information such as, for example, the date they received the ALJ’s order (Order No. 22-UI-186339), whether they read it, whether they agreed or disagreed with the ALJ’s order, the reason(s) why they did not file the application for review to EAB before the deadline, how the reason(s) affected their ability to file a timely application for review, and any other specific details that might help EAB determine whether or not the appellant had “good cause”- which means factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing a timely application for review, and
4. The appellant must provide the date the circumstances that prevented them from filing a timely application for review (which they listed in response to #3, above) ceased to exist, and
5. The appellant must provide sufficient information to prove that they filed their application for review within seven days of that date (the date specified in response to #4, above).

The appellant may file a request for reconsideration in many ways; please note that you need only file one request for reconsideration:

1. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to fill out the “File a Written Argument” form, available on EAB’s website: <https://www.oregon.gov/EMPLOY/EAB/Pages/default.aspx>, or
2. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to send an email to EAB at OED_EAB_OFFICE@employ.oregon.gov, or
3. Send the request by U.S. mail or another delivery service, addressed to 875 Union St NE, Salem, Oregon 97311, or
4. Send EAB a fax at 503-378-2129.

¹ Parties only get 20 days to respond regardless of holidays or if the deadline falls on a weekend.

DECISION: The application for review filed March 19, 2022 is dismissed without prejudice. Order No. 22-UI-186339 remains undisturbed.
