

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0392-R

Late Application for Review Allowed
Order No. 21-UI-177375 Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On July 30, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served Notice of Determination for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) concluding that claimant was not entitled to PUA benefits effective October 3, 2020. On August 19, 2021, the PUA determination became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On September 21, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas reviewed claimant's request, and on October 18, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-177375, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by November 1, 2021. On November 8, 2021, Order No. 21-UI-177375 became final without claimant having responded to the appellant questionnaire or filed an application for review of Order No. 21-UI-177375 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On March 24, 2022, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-177375 with EAB. On April 26, 2022, EAB issued Decision 2022-EAB-0392, dismissing claimant's late application for review without prejudice. On May 16, 2022, claimant filed a request for reconsideration with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence includes claimant's March 24, 2022 written argument in support of her Application for Review marked as EAB Exhibit 1 and claimant's May 16, 2022 written argument in support of her Request for Reconsideration marked as EAB Exhibit 2. Copies of EAB Exhibits 1 and 2 have been provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 or EAB Exhibit 2 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibits will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On July 30, 2021, the Department mailed a Notice of Determination for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance to claimant's address on file with the Department. The July 30, 2021 determination stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received by August 19, 2021." Exhibit 1 at 2.

(2) On October 18, 2021, Order No. 21-UI-177375 was mailed to claimant and stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 21-UI-177375 at 2. Order No. 21-UI-177375 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any party may appeal this order by filing a Request for Review with the Employment Appeals Board no later than November 8, 2021.”

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late application for review is allowed. Order No. 21-UI-177375 is reversed, and this matter remanded to OAH for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing on the July 30, 2021 PUA determination should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that determination.

Late Application for Review. The first issue before EAB is whether claimant’s late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-177375 should be allowed. An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

Claimant’s application for review of Order No. 21-UI-177375 was due no later than November 8, 2021. Because claimant did not file her application for review until March 24, 2022, the application for review was late. However, the statement included with claimant’s application for review, as well as claimant’s written argument in support of her Application for Review of EAB decision 2022-EAB-0392, indicates that it was late because claimant never received Order No. 21-UI-177375 in the mail and was unaware that it had been issued. EAB Exhibits 1 and 2. Claimant’s failure to receive Order No. 21-UI-177375 was a circumstance beyond claimant’s reasonable control that prevented a timely filing. Further, because the record shows that claimant was unaware that Order No. 21-UI-177375 had been issued, the circumstances that prevented claimant from timely filing the application for review continued through the date that claimant filed the late application for review. Claimant therefore filed the application for review within a reasonable time. Claimant’s late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-177375 is allowed.

Late Request for Hearing. The second issue before EAB is whether claimant’s late request for hearing on the July 30, 2021 PUA determination should be allowed. ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing on the PUA determination was August 19, 2021. Claimant filed their request for hearing on September 21, 2021. Therefore, the request for hearing was late. Order No. 21-UI-177375 was mailed with an appellant questionnaire that, had claimant received the order, would have notified her of her right to renew the hearing request by explaining the circumstances that caused her to file the request late. However, as noted above, the record shows that claimant never received Order No. 21-UI-177375. Claimant therefore did not have a reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing, including a full and fair inquiry into the facts necessary for consideration of whether her late request for hearing on the July 30, 2021 PUA determination should be allowed, as required under ORS 657.270. Nevertheless, the document OAH construed as a late request for hearing and her written statement indicates that factors beyond claimant's reasonable control may have prevented her from filing a timely request for hearing, and that claimant may have filed her late request for hearing within a reasonable time after those factors ceased to exist. Exhibit 2 at 2-3, EAB Exhibit 1. Order No. 21-UI-177375 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of the July 30, 2021 PUA determination .

DECISION: Claimant's late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-177375 is allowed. Order No. 21-UI-177375 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.
