

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0429

Late Applications for Review Dismissed Without Prejudice

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On October 5, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was denied benefits for the week of August 29 through September 4, 2021 because they failed to file a timely claim for benefits for that week (decision # 75651). Also on October 5, 2021, the Department served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was denied benefits for the week of August 29 through September 4, 2021 because they did not actively seek work that week (decision # 80150). On October 25, 2021, decisions # 75651 and 80150 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing.

On December 9, 2021 claimant filed late requests for hearings on decisions # 75651 and 80150. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's requests, and on February 28, 2022 issued Orders No. 22-UI-187425 and 22-UI-187431, dismissing the requests as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the requests by responding to an appellant questionnaire by March 14, 2022. On March 21, 2022, Orders No. 22-UI-187425 and 22-UI-187431 became final without claimant having responded to the appellant questionnaire or filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

On March 22, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire, and late applications for review of Orders No. 22-UI-187425 and 22-UI-187431 with EAB. On April 5, 2022, ALJ Kangas mailed letters to claimant stating that because claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire was late, it would not be considered, additional orders would not be issued, and Orders No. 22-UI-187425 and 22-UI-187431 therefore remained in effect. This matter comes before EAB based on claimant's late applications for review of Orders No. 22-UI-187425 and 22-UI-187431.

Pursuant to OAR 471-041-0095 (October 29, 2006), EAB consolidated its review of Orders No. 22-UI-187425 and 22-UI-187431. For case-tracking purposes, this decision is being issued in duplicate (EAB Decisions 2022-EAB-0429 and 2022-EAB-0430).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The applications for review are dismissed without prejudice.

On March 22, 2022, the appellant filed applications for review of Orders No. 22-UI-187425 and 22-UI-187431 with EAB. ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(b) required the applications for review to be filed no later than March 21, 2022. The appellant's applications for review are therefore late, and these applications for review are dismissed.

The deadline for filing an application for review may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of good cause. See ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070 (May 13, 2019). If the appellant believes they have good cause and filed their late applications for review within a reasonable time, the appellant may request that EAB reconsider this decision under OAR 471-041-0145 (May 13, 2019).

EAB will dismiss any request for reconsideration that does not include all five of the following:

1. The appellant must file the request for reconsideration within 20 days of the date this decision was mailed; the date this decision was mailed is April 26, 2022, making the deadline May 16, 2022¹, to file the request for reconsideration, and
2. The appellant must include a statement on the request for reconsideration declaring that they sent a copy of the request to the other party, and
3. The appellant must provide additional specific details about the reason they filed late applications for review. For example, the appellant should include specific information about the date they received the ALJ's orders, whether they read them, whether they agreed or disagreed with the ALJ's orders, the reason(s) why they did not file the applications for review before the deadline, how the reason(s) affected their ability to file timely applications for review, and any other specific details that might help EAB determine whether or not the appellant had "good cause," which means factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing timely applications for review, and
4. The appellant must provide the date the circumstances that prevented them from filing timely applications for review (which they listed in response to #3, above) ceased to exist, and
5. The appellant must provide sufficient information to prove that they filed their applications for review within seven days of that date.

The appellant may file a request for reconsideration in many ways; please note that you need only file one request for reconsideration:

1. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to fill out the "File a Written Argument" form, available on EAB's website: <https://www.oregon.gov/EMPLOY/EAB/Pages/default.aspx>, or
2. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to send an email to EAB at OED_EAB_OFFICE@employ.oregon.gov, or

¹ Parties only get 20 days to respond regardless of holidays or if the deadline falls on a weekend.

3. Send the request by U.S. mail or another delivery service, addressed to 875 Union St NE, Salem, Oregon 97311, or
4. Send EAB a fax at 503-378-2129.

DECISION: The applications for review filed March 22, 2022 are dismissed without prejudice. Orders No. 22-UI-187425 and 22-UI-187431 remain undisturbed.
