

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0502

Late Application for Review Dismissed Without Prejudice

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On November 12, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant voluntarily quit work without good cause and was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective May 24, 2020 (decision # 112738). On November 15, 2021, claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # 112738. On December 3, 2021, the Department vacated decision # 112738 and served notice of an administrative decision, which replaced decision # 112738 by concluding that claimant voluntarily quit work without good cause and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective April 25, 2021 (decision # 74211).¹ On December 10, 2021, ALJ Ramey conducted a hearing, and on December 15, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-181964, affirming decision # 74211. On January 4, 2022, Order No. 21-UI-181964 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On April 22, 2022, claimant filed a late application for review with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence of claimant's emailed statement attached to her application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The application for review is dismissed without prejudice.

On April 22, 2022, the appellant filed an application for review of Order No. 21-UI-181964 with EAB. ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(b) required the application for review to be filed no later than January 4, 2022. The appellant's application for review is therefore late, and this application for review is dismissed.

¹ Claimant's request for hearing on decision # 112738 is construed to apply to decision # 74211.

The deadline for filing an application for review may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of good cause. See ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070 (May 13, 2019). If the appellant believes they have good cause and filed their late application for review within a reasonable time, the appellant may request that EAB reconsider this decision under OAR 471-041-0145 (May 13, 2019).

EAB will dismiss any request for reconsideration that does not include all five of the following:

1. The appellant must file the request for reconsideration within 20 days of the date this decision was mailed; the date this decision was mailed is May 25, 2022, making the deadline June 14, 2022,² to file the request for reconsideration, and
2. The appellant must include a statement on the request for reconsideration declaring that they sent a copy of the request to the other party, and
3. The appellant must provide additional specific details about the reason they filed a late application for review. For example, the appellant should include specific information about the date they received the ALJ's order, whether they read it, whether they agreed or disagreed with the ALJ's order, the reason(s) why they did not file the application for review before the deadline, how the reason(s) affected their ability to file a timely application for review, and any other specific details that might help EAB determine whether or not the appellant had "good cause," which means factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing a timely application for review, and
4. The appellant must provide the date the circumstances that prevented them from filing a timely application for review (which they listed in response to #3, above) ceased to exist, and
5. The appellant must provide sufficient information to prove that they filed their application for review within seven days of that date.

In particular, claimant indicated in her statement attached to the application for review that she "wanted to appeal" the order under review and that she "had submitted the request within the timeline [and had] not heard back yet." EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. If claimant submitted an application for review on Order No. 21-UI-181964 prior to April 22, 2022, or attempted to do so, claimant should describe in her request for reconsideration when she spoke to the Department or otherwise made the request and what responses, if any, she received.

The appellant may file a request for reconsideration in many ways; please note that you need only file one request for reconsideration:

1. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to fill out the "File a Written Argument" form, available on EAB's website: <https://www.oregon.gov/EMPLOY/EAB/Pages/default.aspx>, or
2. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to send an email to EAB at OED_EAB_OFFICE@employ.oregon.gov, or

² Parties only get 20 days to respond regardless of holidays or if the deadline falls on a weekend.

3. Send the request by U.S. mail or another delivery service, addressed to 875 Union St NE, Salem, Oregon 97311, or
4. Send EAB a fax at 503-378-2129.

DECISION: The application for review filed April 22, 2022 is dismissed without prejudice. Order No. 21-UI-181964 remains undisturbed.
