

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0617

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On December 1, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that the employer discharged claimant for misconduct, disqualifying claimant from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective November 7, 2021 (decision # 121752). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On May 24, 2022, ALJ Mott conducted a hearing, and on May 25, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-194648, reversing decision # 121752 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. On May 31, 2022, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: The employer's argument contained information that was not part of the hearing record, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control prevented them from offering the information during the hearing. In their written argument, the employer asserted that factors beyond their reasonable control prevented them from offering the additional information into the hearing record because the employer "was completely unprepared for [claimant] to claim that she was ignorant of the vaccination required and that it was a condition of her employment," and the employer "did not, and could not, reasonably anticipate that [claimant] would claim that she did not understand that vaccination was required." Employer's Written Argument at 2-3. The fact that the employer did not anticipate claimant's specific testimony, however, does not constitute a factor beyond the employer's reasonable control that prevented them from offering the information during the hearing. The employer has not contended, for example, that they were unable to retrieve the documents prior to the hearing despite good faith efforts to do so. Instead, the employer has essentially argued that they did not think it necessary to offer the information into the hearing record. Choosing not to offer the information at hearing because they believed it unnecessary to do so does not amount to a factor beyond the employer's reasonable control.

Because the employer has not shown that they were prevented from offering the information into the hearing record due to factors beyond their reasonable control, under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision. EAB considered the employer's argument to the extent it was based on the record.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-194648 is affirmed.
