

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0669

Affirmed
Late Request for Hearing Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On December 22, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to register for work in accordance with the Department's rules and therefore was ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits for the weeks of November 28, 2021 through December 4, 2021 and until the reason for the denial had ended. On January 11, 2022, the administrative decision became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On January 13, 2022 claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on March 31, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-190269, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by April 14, 2022. On April 18, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 22-UI-190269 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On June 9, 2022, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire was late, it would not be considered, another order would not be issued, and Order No. 22-UI-190269 remained in effect. This matter comes before EAB based on claimant's April 18, 2022, application for review of Order No. 22-UI-190269 with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's response to the Appellant Questionnaire claimant included with her application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit(s) will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 22, 2021, the Department mailed a notice of an administrative decision to claimant's address on file with the Department. The December 22, 2021 administrative decision stated, "Appeal Deadline Date: JANUARY 11, 2022," and "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than 01/11/22." Exhibit 1 at 1.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late request for hearing is dismissed.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing on the December 22, 2021 administrative decision was January 11, 2022. Claimant filed the request for hearing on January 13, 2022. Therefore, the request for hearing was late. Claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire indicates she received the order in late December and waited to file her request for hearing because she was waiting to hear from the adjudicator in her case. EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. However, it was within claimant's reasonable control to file a timely request for hearing while waiting to hear from the adjudicator. And although claimant's decision to wait until she heard from the adjudicator was a mistake, it was not an "excusable mistake" within the meaning of the administrative rules because it did not, for example, raise a due process issue, and was not the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply.

Because claimant failed to establish good cause for the late request for hearing, the request for hearing is dismissed.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-190269 is affirmed.
