

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0710

Affirmed
Late Request for Hearing Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 19, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not able to work from September 19, 2021 through October 9, 2021 (weeks 38-21 through 40-21) and was denied benefits for those weeks and until the reason for the denial had ended (decision # 110111). On November 8, 2021, decision # 110111 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On December 29, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on March 21, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-189269, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by April 4, 2022. On April 11, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 22-UI-189269 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On June 16, 2022, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's April 11, 2022 application for review of Order No. 22-UI-189269.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's April 11, 2022 response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: On October 19, 2021, the Department mailed decision # 110111 to claimant's address on file with the Department. Decision # 110111 stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than November 8, 2021.” Exhibit 1 at 2.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late request for hearing is dismissed.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist. Under OAR 471-040-0010(1)(b)(B), not understanding the implications of a decision or notice when it is received is not good cause for filing a late request for hearing.

The request for hearing on decision # 110111 was due by November 8, 2021. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until December 29, 2021, the request was late. In their appellant questionnaire response, claimant stated that they received decision # 110111 on October 29, 2021, and that they did not file the request for hearing until December 29, 2021 because they “did not understand” the information they had received from the Department. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1–2. However, to the extent that claimant failed to file the request for hearing by the deadline because they did not understand the implications of decision # 110111, they did not, under OAR 471-040-0010(1)(b)(B), have good cause for their late request for hearing.

Claimant also indicated in their questionnaire response that they believed they had good cause to file the late request for hearing because they were “caring for [their] domestic partner who was recovering from COVID-19.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. However, claimant did not explain when their partner had COVID-19 or for how long, or why the need to care for their partner prevented them from filing a timely request for hearing. Therefore, claimant has not shown that they were prevented from filing a timely request for hearing due to factors beyond their reasonable control.

Ultimately, claimant’s failure to file a timely request for on decision # 110111 was likely the result of a mistake on their part. However, claimant failed to show that it was an “excusable mistake” within the meaning of the administrative rules that, for example, raises a due process issue, or that was the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply.

Because claimant failed to establish good cause for their late request for hearing on decision # 110111, their late request for hearing is dismissed.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-189269 is affirmed.
