

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0768

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On May 4, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged for misconduct and therefore was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective February 20, 2022 (decision # 160949). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On June 21, 2022, ALJ Wardlow conducted a hearing, and on June 24, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-196838, reversing decision # 160949 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. On July 7, 2022, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of a statement that the employer submitted with their application for review and documents attached thereto, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 22-UI-196838 is set aside and this matter remanded for further development of the record.

At hearing, the ALJ held open the record until June 23, 2022 at noon to allow the parties to submit additional evidence. Transcript at 49–50. The employer’s human resources manager attempted to submit a video of the final incident that led the employer to discharge claimant, sending it by email to the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) prior to the close of the hearing record. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. However, that email address proved to be incorrect, and the email was returned as undeliverable. EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. The employer contacted OAH twice prior to the close of the hearing record in an attempt to obtain the correct email address, but received neither an answer nor a call back. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

Given the employer's multiple good-faith efforts to submit the video evidence prior to the close of the hearing record, and in light of the fact that the outcome of this matter may turn on what the video evidence shows, the employer should be afforded the opportunity to submit the video into the hearing record. On remand, if the video is admitted, the ALJ should allow both parties to testify regarding the contents of the video.

ORS 657.270 requires the ALJ to give all parties a reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing. That obligation necessarily requires the ALJ to ensure that the record developed at the hearing shows a full and fair inquiry into the facts necessary for consideration of all issues properly before the ALJ in a case. ORS 657.270(3); see accord Dennis v. Employment Division, 302 Or 160, 728 P2d 12 (1986). Because further development of the record is necessary for a determination of whether claimant was discharged for misconduct, Order No. 22-UI-196838 is reversed, and this matter is remanded.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-196838 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Serres and A. Steger-Bentz;
D. Hettle, not participating.

DATE of Service: October 11, 2022

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 22-UI-196838 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
