

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0847

Reversed
Late Request for Hearing Allowed
Merits Hearing Required

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 8, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of a Wage and Potential Benefit Report (WPBR) concluding that claimant did not have sufficient hours or earnings in their base year to qualify for a monetarily valid unemployment insurance claim. On December 18, 2021, the December 8, 2021 WPBR became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On February 5, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing on the December 8, 2021 WPBR. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on May 3, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-192814, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by May 17, 2022. On May 18, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 22-UI-192814 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 2, 2022, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's May 18, 2022 application for review of Order No. 22-UI-192814.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire and a statement enclosed therewith, marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 22-UI-192814 is reversed and this matter remanded for a hearing on the merits of the December 8, 2021 WPBR.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The request for hearing on the December 8, 2021 WPBR was due by December 18, 2021. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until February 5, 2022, the request was late. In their appellant questionnaire response, claimant stated that they first received the December 8, 2021 WPBR on February 1, 2022. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. In a statement enclosed with the questionnaire response, claimant further explained that they were homeless at the time the December 8, 2021 WPBR was issued, that they were therefore using their mother's address in order to receive mail, and that their mother did not permit them to access her house or retrieve their mail until February 1, 2022 because she was medically vulnerable and therefore "very strict in social distancing and doing everything she could to avoid exposure to the COVID virus[.]" EAB Exhibit 1 at 3-4.

Claimant's lack of a physical address where they could receive mail, combined with their mother's refusal to permit them to retrieve their mail, constituted a factor beyond claimant's reasonable control that prevented them from filing a timely request for hearing on the December 8, 2021 WPBR. That factor ceased to exist on February 1, 2022, when claimant's mother finally permitted claimant to retrieve their mail. Further, claimant filed their request for hearing on February 5, 2022—four days after they received the December 8, 2021 WPBR—and therefore filed the request within a reasonable time after the factors that prevented their timely filing ceased to exist.

For the above reasons, claimant had good cause for failing to file a timely request for hearing, and filed their late request for hearing within a reasonable time. Claimant's late request for hearing on the December 8, 2021 WPBR therefore is allowed, and claimant is entitled to a hearing on the merits of that decision.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-192814 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.
