

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0857

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On October 4, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant willfully made a misrepresentation and failed to report a material fact to obtain benefits, and assessing a $7,752 overpayment of regular unemployment insurance benefits, a $1,162.80 monetary penalty, and a 52-week disqualification from future benefits (decision # 194557). On October 24, 2018, decision # 194557 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On March 24, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on June 29, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-197167, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by July 13, 2022. On July 18, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 22-UI-197167 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 2, 2022, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's July 18, 2022 application for review of Order No. 22-UI-197167.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 22-UI-197167 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 194557 should be allowed, and if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

On October 4, 2018, the Department mailed decision # 194557 to claimant at claimant’s address of record on file with the Department. The 20-day deadline for claimant to file a timely request for hearing on that decision was October 24, 2018. Claimant did not file a request for hearing until March 24, 2022. Accordingly, claimant’s request for hearing was late.

In their appellant questionnaire response, claimant indicated that they did not receive decision # 194557 until March 2022 and did not know about the decision until that point in time. If claimant did not receive the administrative decision until March 2022, claimant’s late request for hearing may have been due to factors beyond their reasonable control. However, further inquiry is needed to determine whether claimant had good cause to file the late request for hearing, and whether they filed the late request for hearing within a reasonable time. On remand, the ALJ should develop the record to confirm that claimant failed to receive decision # 194557 until March 2022 and, if so, the precise date on which claimant received it, and whether claimant’s request for hearing was filed within a seven-day “reasonable time” thereafter. To the extent the record on remand shows that claimant did not receive decision # 194557 until March 2022, the ALJ should ask questions to determine why claimant received the decision nearly four years after it was issued. The ALJ should also ask questions to determine whether claimant had learned of the existence of the administrative decision before March 2022, whether the circumstances (if any) that prevented a timely filing ceased to exist at that point, and, if so, whether claimant’s March 24, 2022 request for hearing was filed within a seven-day “reasonable time” thereafter.

Order No. 22-UI-197167 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed, and if so, the merits of decision # 194557.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-197167 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: August 30, 2022

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 22-UI-197167 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
