

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-0979

Late Request for Hearing Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 17, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served a Notice of Determination for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) concluding that claimant was not eligible to receive PUA benefits effective February 2, 2020. On January 6, 2021, the PUA Determination became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On February 24, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing on the December 17, 2020 PUA Determination.

ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on May 24, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-194439, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by June 7, 2022. On June 13, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 22-UI-194439 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 18, 2022, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's June 13, 2022 application for review of Order No. 22-UI-194439.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire and an attached statement, marked as EAB Exhibit 1. A copy is provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 22-UI-194439 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing on the December 17, 2020 administrative decision should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist. Under OAR 471-040-0010(1)(b)(B), not understanding the implications of a decision or notice when it is received is not good cause to file a late request for hearing.

The request for hearing on the December 17, 2020 administrative decision was due by January 6, 2021. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until February 24, 2022, the request was late. On the statement attached to the appellant questionnaire response, claimant explained that they had been “essentially homeless” at the time that they filed for PUA benefits and had been using their parents’ house as a mailing address at the time, but did not receive the December 17, 2020 administrative decision because their mother was suffering from Parkinson’s Disease and not giving them their mail. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant further explained that their mother passed away on April 29, 2021, and that afterwards they “finally” saw “a denial of benefits” from the Department. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Additionally, claimant explained that they “tried to appeal it but did not understand the forms and became completely confused,” “tried calling but could not get the assistance [they] needed,” and filed the request late despite having friends attempt to help them. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

If claimant filed their request for hearing late due to not having timely received the December 17, 2020 administrative decision, claimant may have failed to file a timely request for hearing due to factors beyond their control. Additionally, if claimant was further delayed in filing the request for hearing because they were confused about the appeals process or reasonably relied upon another person to help them file the request, they might have filed the request late due to an excusable mistake. However, more information is needed to determine whether claimant had good cause to file the late request for hearing.

On remand, the ALJ should inquire as to when claimant first received or otherwise became aware of the December 17, 2020 administrative decision, what efforts they made to file the request for hearing when they did receive or become aware of the decision, what other difficulties, if any, further delayed their filing the request, and what ultimately led them to file the request when they did.

Order No. 22-UI-194439 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of the December 17, 2020 administrative decision.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-194439 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: October 5, 2022

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 22-UI-194439 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
