

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2022-EAB-1222-R

Request for Reconsideration Allowed
EAB Decision 2022-EAB-1222 Adhered to on Reconsideration
Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 14, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant received benefits to which they were not entitled and assessing an overpayment of $1800.00 in Lost Wage Assistance payments that claimant was required to repay to the Department (decision # 564036). On January 3, 2022, decision # 564036 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On August 10, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the request and on November 16, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-207530, dismissing claimant's late request for hearing subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by November 30, 2022. On December 6, 2022, Order No. 22-UI-207530 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On December 9, 2022, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-207530 with EAB. On January 18, 2023, EAB issued EAB Decision 2022-EAB-1222, dismissing claimant's late application for review without prejudice. On February 2, 2023, claimant filed a request for reconsideration with EAB. This decision is issued pursuant to EAB's authority under ORS 657.290(3).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's request for reconsideration is allowed. EAB Decision 2022-EAB-1222 is adhered to on reconsideration. Claimant's late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-207530 is dismissed.

ORS 657.290(3) authorizes the Employment Appeals Board to reconsider any previous decision of the Employment Appeals Board, including "the making of a new decision to the extent necessary and appropriate for the correction of previous error of fact or law." The request is subject to dismissal unless it includes a statement that a copy was provided to the other parties, and is filed on or before the 20th day after the decision sought to be reconsidered was mailed. OAR 471-041-0145(2) (May 13, 2019).

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

EAB dismissed claimant’s late application for review without prejudice and subject to claimant filing a timely request for reconsideration within 20 days after EAB’s dismissal decision was issued. Claimant filed a request for reconsideration consistent with the requirements set forth in OAR 471-041-0145. The request for reconsideration therefore is allowed.

The application for review of Order No. 22-UI-207530 was due by December 6, 2022. Because claimant did not file their application for review until December 9, 2022, the application for review was late. Decision 2022-EAB-1222 is adhered to on reconsideration because claimant did not establish good cause to extend the deadline for filing their application for review in their reconsideration request.

The statement included in claimant’s request for reconsideration did not establish precisely when claimant received Order No. 22-UI-207530. Claimant’s statement, submitted with the reconsideration request, did not assert that they failed to receive Order No. 22-UI-207530 before it became final on December 6, 2022. According to claimant’s statement, they received Order No. 22-UI-207530 sometime after November 29, 2022, but before making an appointment on December 7, 2022 to discuss the order with their lawyer. Claimant’s Request for Reconsideration at 3. Based on this statement, it is more likely than not that claimant received Order No. 22-UI-207530 on or before December 6, 2022, the date the order became final. Therefore, claimant could have filed the application for review before they received the advice of counsel and before Order No. 22-UI-207530 became final. Waiting to file an application for review beyond the due date for timely filing in order to meet with an attorney is not a circumstance beyond claimant’s reasonable control. Therefore, claimant did not show good cause to extend the timely filing deadline beyond December 6, 2022, and claimant’s late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: Claimant’s request for reconsideration is allowed. On reconsideration, EAB Decision 2022-EAB-1222 is adhered to on reconsideration. Claimant’s late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-207530 is dismissed, leaving the order undisturbed.
