

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0019

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 1, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was overpaid $11,448 in unemployment insurance and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits (decision # 103906). On April 21, 2022, decision # 103906 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On May 10, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on August 25, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-201265, dismissing the request as late without a showing of good cause, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by September 8, 2022. On September 14, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire with the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) and a timely application for review by the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On December 21, 2022, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire was late, OAH would not consider it or issue another order, and that Order No. 22-UI-201265 remained in effect. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's September 14, 2022 application for review of Order No. 22-UI-201265.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is the appellant questionnaire response claimant included with his application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit(s) will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On April 1, 2022, the Department mailed decision # 103906 to claimant's address of record. Decision # 103906 became final on April 21, 2022 without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On May 10, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # 103906.

(2) On September 14, 2022, claimant filed a response to the appellant questionnaire. In it, he alleged that "[a]t the beginning of May," he received "something saying 'Administrative Decision.'" EAB Exhibit 1 at 11. This may have referred to decision # 103906, and constituted an explanation for his late filing of a request for hearing on that decision.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 22-UI-201265 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 103906 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing on decision # 103906 was April 21, 2022. Claimant filed his request for hearing on May 10, 2022. Therefore, the request for hearing was late. However, claimant may have had good cause to file his request for hearing late because the record shows that claimant might not have received a copy of decision # 103906 prior to the decision becoming final.

If claimant did not timely receive the decision in the mail, this may have constituted a factor beyond claimant's reasonable control that prevented him from filing a request for hearing by the April 21, 2022 deadline. However, the record does not provide detail as to why claimant may have received decision # 103906 several weeks after it was mailed, and is insufficient to determine when claimant learned of the existence of the decision, as claimant's responses in the appellant questionnaire reference multiple administrative decisions interchangeably. The record is also insufficient to determine whether claimant filed his request for hearing within a reasonable time after learning of it.

Because further development of the record is necessary for a determination of whether claimant had good cause to file a late request for hearing, Order No. 22-UI-201265 is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether the late request for hearing on decision # 103906 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-201265 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.
