

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0145

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On July 25, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of Wage and Potential Benefit Report (WPBR) concluding that claimant did not qualify for unemployment insurance benefits because he did not have sufficient subject wages or hours worked during his base year. On August 4, 2022, the July 25, 2022 WPBR became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On August 29, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on December 6, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-209057, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by December 20, 2022. On December 27, 2022, Order No. 22-UI-209057 became final without claimant having filed an appellant questionnaire response or application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On January 5, 2023, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-209057 with EAB. On January 23, 2023, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-209057.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's late questionnaire response, and the written statements and other documents claimant provided with his application for review, and have been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision.¹ Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDING OF FACT: (1) Order No. 22-UI-209057, mailed to claimant on December 6, 2022, stated, "You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment

¹ EAB considered all the documents claimant submitted with his application for review to EAB, but redacted the Death Certificate and Addendum from the copies sent to the parties because they contain confidential information.

Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 22-UI-209057 at 2. Order No. 22-UI-209057 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any party may appeal this Order by filing a Request for Review with the Employment Appeals Board no later than December 27, 2022.”

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-209057 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 22-UI-209057 was due by December 27, 2022. Because claimant did not file the application for review until January 5, 2023, the application for review was late. Claimant provided a written statement with the application for review. However, claimant’s written statement did not describe the circumstances that prevented claimant from filing the application for review on time. Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for the late application for review, and claimant’s late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed January 5, 2023 is dismissed. Order No. 22-UI-209057 remains undisturbed.
