

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0187

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On July 12, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit working for the employer without good cause and therefore was disqualified from receiving benefits effective September 20, 2020 (decision # 82420). On August 1, 2022, decision # 82420 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On August 29, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on December 6, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-209026, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by December 20, 2022. On December 27, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 22-UI-209026 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On February 1, 2023, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's December 27, 2022 application for review of Order No. 22-UI-209026.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 22-UI-209026 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of on decision # 82420.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist. Under OAR 471-040-0010(1)(b)(A), "good cause" does not include failure to receive a document due to not notifying the Employment Department or Office of Administrative Hearings of an updated address while the person is claiming benefits or if the person knows, or reasonably should know, of a pending appeal.

The request for hearing on decision # 82420 was due by August 1, 2022. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until August 29, 2022, the request was late. In their appellant questionnaire response, claimant explained that they did not file their request for hearing by the filing deadline because they "did not receive [their] mail in time," and "it was forwarded" to them. EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. If claimant did not receive decision # 82420 until after the timely filing deadline had passed, claimant may have failed to file a timely request for hearing due to factors beyond their control. However, further inquiry is required to determine if claimant had good cause to file the late request for hearing.

On remand, the ALJ should develop the record to show why claimant had not been receiving their mail on time, including what was the cause of the delay, who forwarded claimant's mail, whether claimant's mailing address with the Department was updated as of July 12, 2022, and, if not, whether claimant was claiming benefits or otherwise had reason to know of a pending appeal at that time. The ALJ should also inquire as to when claimant first received or became aware of decision # 82420, how much time passed between that point and August 29, 2022, whether other factors prevented claimant from filing the request for hearing once they became aware of decision # 82420 and, if so, when those factors ceased.

Order No. 22-UI-209026 therefore is set aside, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # 82420.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-209026 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: February 24, 2023

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 22-UI-209026 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
