

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0262

Late Application for Review Allowed

Affirmed

Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On November 29, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit working for the employer without good cause and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective October 23, 2022 (decision # 92426). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On January 3, 2023, ALJ Adamson conducted a hearing, and on January 5, 2023 issued Order No. 23-UI-211823, modifying decision # 92426 by concluding that claimant was disqualified from receiving benefits effective October 30, 2022. On January 25, 2023, Order No. 23-UI-211823 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On February 27, 2023, claimant filed a late application for review with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is the written statement claimant provided with his late application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: Claimant and the employer submitted written arguments to EAB. EAB considered claimant's argument in reaching this decision. The employer's written argument contained information that was not part of the hearing record, except for an email at page four that had been admitted as Exhibit 1 at the hearing, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control prevented them from offering the new information during the hearing. Under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision. EAB considered the employer's argument to the extent it was based on the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 23-UI-211823, mailed to claimant on January 5, 2023, stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 23-UI-211823 at 3. Order No. 23-UI-211823 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before January 25, 2023 to be timely.” However, claimant did not receive Order No. 23-UI-211823 in the mail. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

(2) On February 27, 2023, claimant filed an Application for Review form with EAB, which had been sent to him on an unrelated matter, after having noting on the form that he was requesting review of the case number under which Order No. 23-UI-211823 had been issued. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

CONCLUSION AND REASONS: Claimant’s late application for review is allowed. Claimant quit work without good cause.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 23-UI-211823 was due January 25, 2023. Because claimant did not file his application for review until February 27, 2023, the application for review was late.

Claimant’s application for review included a written statement asserting that he was prevented from filing the application for review by the January 25, 2023 deadline because he did not receive Order No. 23-UI-211823 in the mail. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. This constituted a factor or circumstance outside of claimant’s reasonable control that did not cease until claimant filed his late application for review on February 27, 2023. Claimant therefore has shown good cause to extend the deadline for timely filing a “reasonable time” to February 27, 2023. Accordingly, claimant’s late application for review is allowed.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.
