

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0446

Affirmed
Late Request for Hearing Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On July 25, 2022 the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant received benefits to which they were not entitled, and assessing an overpayment of $2,884 in regular unemployment insurance benefits (regular UI) and $2,100 in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation benefits (FPUC) that claimant was required to repay to the Department (decision # 162903). On August 15, 2022, decision # 162903 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On September 19, 2022 claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the request, and on January 5, 2023, issued Order No. 23-UI-211788, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to the appellant questionnaire by January 19, 2023. On January 23, 2023 claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 23-UI-211788. On April 13, 2023, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's January 23, 2023 application for review of Order 23-UI-211788.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's January 23, 2023 response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's written argument in reaching this decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On July 25, 2022, the Department mailed decision # 162903 to claimant's address on file with the Department. Decision # 162903 stated, "If you disagree with the amount of the overpayment, you have the right to appeal this decision. Any appeal from this decision must be filed on or before August 15, 2022 to be timely." Exhibit 1 at 2.

(2) Claimant received decision # 162903 at some point during the second week of August 2022. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. At that time, claimant disagreed with the decision, but elected solely to pursue an overpayment waiver rather than request a hearing on decision # 162903.

(3) On September 19, 2022, claimant filed a request for hearing on decision # 162903

CONCLUSION AND REASONS: Claimant’s late request for hearing is dismissed.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The request for hearing on decision # 162903 was due by August 15, 2022. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until September 19, 2022, the request was late. In their appellant questionnaire response, claimant stated that they did not file until September 19, 2022, because they had applied for an overpayment waiver and “had to wait for the answer on the waiver.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2.

Claimant did not timely file their request for hearing because claimant was awaiting a response regarding their request for an overpayment waiver. Claimant’s response to the appellant questionnaire suggests that they received decision # 162903 before the filing deadline, but delayed requesting a hearing until September 19, 2022. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1-2. However, claimant could have requested a hearing at the same time that they requested a waiver of the overpayment. Decision # 162903 explicitly informed claimant of their right to appeal if they disagreed with the overpayment amount, and advised claimant of the filing deadline. Because claimant received the decision and was aware of the deadline, it was within claimant’s reasonable control to timely request a hearing. Although claimant’s belief that they needed to wait for an answer on their waiver request was likely the result of a mistake on claimant’s part, it was not an “excusable mistake” within the meaning of the administrative rules because it did not, for example, raise a due process issue, and was not the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply. As claimant has not shown that their failure to file a request for hearing was the result of factors beyond their reasonable control or a reasonable mistake, they have not established good cause. Because claimant failed to establish good cause for their late request for hearing on decision # 162903, their late request for hearing is dismissed.

DECISION: Order No. 23-UI-211788 is affirmed.
