

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0459

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On July 7, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served a Notice of Determination for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) concluding that claimant was not entitled to PUA benefits effective March 8, 2020. On July 27, 2022, the Notice of Determination for PUA became final without claimant having requested a hearing. On August 7, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on November 14, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-207228, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by November 28, 2022. On November 30, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On April 11, 2023, ALJ Kangas mailed claimant a letter stating that claimant's late response to the appellant questionnaire would not be considered, and a new order would not be issued. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's November 30, 2022 application for review.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 22-UI-207228 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of the July 7, 2022 Notice of Determination of PUA.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing on the Notice of Determination for PUA was July 27, 2022. Claimant filed their request for hearing on August 7, 2022. Therefore, the request for hearing was late. However, claimant may have had good cause to file the request for hearing late because the record shows that claimant might not have received a copy of the Notice of Determination for PUA prior to the decision becoming final.

The information that claimant provided in their appellant questionnaire response suggests that they did not receive the Notice of Determination for PUA in the mail until August 7, 2022, and had checked the mail as recently as August 4, 2022. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1-2. If claimant did not receive the Notice of Determination for PUA and was unaware of the decision or their appeal rights prior to the decision becoming final, this may have constituted a factor outside claimant’s reasonable control that prevented them from timely filing their request for hearing. However, further inquiry is needed to determine if claimant had good cause to file the late request for hearing.

On remand, the ALJ should inquire as to when, if at all, claimant received or otherwise learned about the Notice of Determination for PUA, claimant’s right to appeal it, and any other factors that may have prevented claimant from filing a timely request for hearing. The ALJ also should inquire as to when those factors, if any, ceased to exist, and whether claimant filed their request within a reasonable time after any such factors ceased to exist.

Order No. 22-UI-207228 therefore is set aside, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of the Notice of Determination for PUA.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-207228 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Serres, not participating.

DATE of Service: April 26, 2023

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 22-UI-207228 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
