

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0478

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On November 8, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged for misconduct and was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective October 23, 2022 (decision # 95713). On November 28, 2022, decision # 95713 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On December 13, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # 95713.

ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on April 17, 2023 issued Order No. 23-UI-222271, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by May 8, 2023. On April 20, 2023, claimant filed a timely application for review of Order No. 23-UI-222271 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's written statement enclosed with their application for review and an attached call log, marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 23-UI-222271 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 95713 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The request for hearing on decision # 95713 was due by November 28, 2022. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until December 13, 2022, the request was late. On the written statement enclosed with their application for review, claimant asserted that they contacted the Department on November 10, 2022, at which point a representative told claimant that their “claim had already been denied[.]” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. Claimant further asserted that they asked if they were able to submit a request for hearing by phone, “and the representative said yes.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. Claimant supported their assertion that they made this call by submitting a call log which, in pertinent part, shows a 28-minute phone call made to the Department at 1:41 p.m. on November 10, 2022. EAB Exhibit 1 at 5.

It is not clear from claimant’s statement, above, whether they actually submitted a request for hearing during the call on November 10, 2022, whether they merely asked if they were able to do so, or what instructions the department provided. On remand, the ALJ should inquire as to whether claimant made a request for hearing during the phone call on November 10, 2022. The ALJ should also inquire as to whether the Department has any records of the call, what other information the Department representative gave claimant during that call, and what led claimant to file the late request for hearing on December 13, 2022.

Order No. 23-UI-222271 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # 95713.

DECISION: Order No. 23-UI-222271 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: May 23, 2023

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 23-UI-222271 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
