

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0649

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On September 6, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information in accordance with the Department's rules and therefore was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits from August 7, 2022 through August 27, 2022 (weeks 32-22 through 34-22) and until the reason for denial had ended (decision # 603339). On September 26, 2022, decision # 603339 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On October 25, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on November 17, 2022 issued Order No. 22-UI-207588, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by December 1, 2022. On December 5, 2022, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On June 14, 2023, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because the appellant questionnaire response was late, it would not be considered and another order would not be issued. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's December 5, 2022 application for review.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is the appellant questionnaire response claimant included with their application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On November 17, 2022, decision # 603339 was mailed to claimant's address of record on file with the Department. It stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than September 26, 2022." Exhibit 1 at 2. Claimant filed their late request for hearing on decision # 603339 on October 25, 2022.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 22-UI-207588 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing on decision # 603339 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing on decision # 603339 was September 26, 2022. Claimant filed their request for hearing on October 25, 2022. Therefore, the request for hearing was late. However, claimant may have had good cause to file their request for hearing late. Claimant wrote in their response to the appellant questionnaire that they received decision # 603339 on November 19, 2022. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Other responses indicated that claimant may have been generally aware of the decision from communications with the Department prior to that date, but that they did not understand their right to appeal the decision. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1–2. These circumstances may have amounted to factors beyond claimant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake that prevented a timely filing.

As claimant’s responses suggested that claimant may not have received decision # 603339 prior to the deadline for timely filing, the record must be further developed to determine if any delay in receipt was caused by a factor beyond claimant’s reasonable control. Inquiry should also be made into when claimant learned of the existence of decision # 603339 and their appeal rights therefrom in order to determine if the October 25, 2022 late request for hearing was filed within a “reasonable time” after the factors that prevented timely filing ceased.

Because further development of the record is necessary for a determination of whether claimant had good cause to file a late request for hearing, Order No. 22-UI-207588 is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether the late request for hearing on decision # 603339 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

DECISION: Order No. 22-UI-207588 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Serres, not participating.

DATE of Service: June 22, 2023

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 22-UI-207588 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
