

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0695

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 16, 2023, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged by the employer for misconduct and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective February 26, 2023 (decision # 81527). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On May 16, 2023, ALJ Amesbury conducted a hearing, and on May 31, 2023 issued Order No. 23-UI-226043, reversing decision # 81527 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. On June 20, 2023, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's written argument when reaching this decision. The employer's argument contained information that was not part of the hearing record. While the employer may have been prevented from offering some of this evidence into the hearing record due to factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control, the employer has not shown that the additional evidence is relevant and material to EAB's determination. Of note, the employer included with their written argument several documents pertaining to claimant's alleged violations of ORS Chapter 260, regarding how and when public employees may engage in political activity. These documents included claimant's email correspondence from April 2022, regarding his advocacy for a political candidate. Employer's Written Argument at 8–12. Although the employer was unable to offer the documents themselves prior to the hearing, the employer's witness testified generally to the contents of those documents, and the record was sufficiently developed in that regard. The admission of the documents themselves therefore would not result in a material change to the outcome in this matter. The employer also included a letter from their counsel to the Oregon State Police, dated April 12, 2023, reporting their concerns about claimant's alleged violations of ORS Chapter 260. Employer's Written Argument at 4–5.

As this letter was sent nearly two months after the employer discharged claimant, it is not relevant to the determination of whether claimant was discharged for misconduct.

Finally, while it is clear that the employer's concern about claimant's alleged violations of ORS Chapter 260 contributed to their decision to discharge claimant, the record also shows that the employer was aware of these alleged violations by December 2022 at the latest. However, the employer did not discharge claimant immediately upon learning of the alleged violations. Instead, the employer continued to employ claimant until February 28, 2023. In the intervening time, several additional occurrences, including concerns about a "premeditated stress claim," and claimant's request for a different liaison to the County Board of Commissioners, took place. Transcript at 27. Based on the record at hearing, these also led the employer to discharge claimant. Thus, additional information regarding claimant's alleged violations of ORS Chapter 260 is not relevant and material to EAB's determination because those alleged violations (or the employer's discovery thereof) did not constitute the final incident that led the employer to discharge claimant.<sup>1</sup>

Under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision. EAB considered the employer's argument to the extent it was based on the record.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 23-UI-226043 is affirmed.
