

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0773-R

Request for Reconsideration Allowed
EAB Decision 2023-EAB-0773 Adhered to on Reconsideration

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On August 18, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant voluntarily quit work without good cause and was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective March 7, 2021 (decision # 111737). On September 7, 2021, decision # 111737 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On April 4, 2023, claimant filed a late request for hearing. On June 14, 2023, ALJ Adamson conducted a hearing, and on June 22, 2023, issued Order No. 23-UI-228450, allowing claimant's late request for hearing and reversing decision # 111737 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. On July 11, 2023, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

On August 24, 2023, EAB issued EAB Decision 2023-EAB-0773, affirming Order No. 23-UI-228450 by adopting its findings of fact and conclusions of law. On August 24, 2023, the employer filed a written argument in excess of 35 days from the application for review filing date, which is not permitted under OAR 471-041-0080(4)(a)(E) (May 13, 2019), which written argument EAB construed as a request for reconsideration of EAB Decision 2023-EAB-0773. This decision is issued pursuant to EAB's authority under ORS 657.290(3).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The employer's request for reconsideration is allowed. EAB Decision 2023-EAB-0398 is adhered to on reconsideration.

ORS 657.290(3) authorizes the Employment Appeals Board to reconsider any previous decision of the Employment Appeals Board, including "the making of a new decision to the extent necessary and appropriate for the correction of previous error of fact or law." "Any party may request reconsideration to correct an error of material fact or law, or to explain any unexplained inconsistency with Employment Department rule, or officially stated Employment Department position, or prior Employment Department practice." OAR 471-041-0145(1) (May 13, 2019). The request is subject to dismissal unless it includes a statement that a copy was provided to the other parties, and is filed on or before the 20th day after the decision sought to be reconsidered was mailed. OAR 471-041-0145(2).

The employer filed a request for reconsideration consistent with the requirements set forth in OAR 471-041-0145. The request for reconsideration is therefore allowed.

The employer's request for reconsideration is a written argument filed in excess of 35 days from the employer's application for review filing date. As such, had the written argument been received before EAB Decision 2023-EAB-0773 was served, EAB would not have been permitted to consider it because it was not received within the time period allowed under OAR 471-041-0080(1) (May 13, 2019). The argument also contained information that was not part of the hearing record, such as work schedules and text messages. The employer did not show that factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control prevented them from offering that information during the hearing. Therefore, even if the employer had timely filed the argument, EAB would not have considered the information the employer included that was not part of the hearing record because under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB is permitted to consider only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching the decision.

The employer's reconsideration request does not assert or show that modifying EAB Decision 2023-EAB-0773 would be necessary to correct an error of material fact or law, or to explain any unexplained inconsistency with Employment Department rule, or officially stated Employment Department position, or prior Employment Department practice. Accordingly, EAB Decision 2023-EAB-0773 is adhered to on reconsideration.

DECISION: The employer request for reconsideration is allowed. On reconsideration, EAB Decision 2023-EAB-0773 is adhered to as clarified herein.
