

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0854

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On June 30, 2023, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that the employer discharged claimant for misconduct, disqualifying claimant from receiving benefits effective May 7, 2023 (decision # 101935). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On July 27, 2023, ALJ Fraser conducted a hearing and issued Order No. 23-UI-231647, reversing decision # 101935 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. On August 3, 2023, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: With their application for review, the employer submitted a request that EAB consider additional evidence, documents relating to claimant's discharge that the employer did not offer into evidence at the hearing. The employer asserted that were unable to offer the evidence into the hearing record due to issues with their computer and modem, resulting in the full details of claimant's discharge and the events leading up to her discharge not being fully accessible and disclosed at the time of the hearing.

OAR 471-041-0090(1)(b) (May 13, 2019) states that EAB may allow a party's request that EAB consider additional evidence when the party offering the evidence establishes that it is relevant and material to EAB's determination, and that factors or circumstances beyond the party's reasonable control prevented the party from offering the evidence into the hearing record. Here, the employer failed to show that they could not have submitted the documents prior to the hearing as instructed on the Notice of Hearing mailed to the employer on July 14, 2023 and offered the documents into evidence at the hearing. Nor did the employer show that the information contained in the documents is material to EAB's determination. Only two of the thirty-five documents relate to the final incident resulting in claimant's discharge, and although they show that claimant violated the employer's expectations during that incident, they fail to show that claimant did so willfully or with wanton negligence, and therefore fail to establish misconduct.

Because the employer failed to show that their additional evidence is material to EAB's determination, and that factors or circumstances beyond employer's reasonable control prevented them from offering the evidence into the hearing record, the employer's request for EAB to consider the evidence is denied.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 23-UI-231647 is affirmed.
