

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0860

Application for Review Dismissed
No Justiciable Controversy

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On June 16, 2023, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant received $5,398 in regular unemployment insurance (regular UI) and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits to which they were not entitled and must repay (decision # 131949). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On July 31, 2023, ALJ Monroe conducted a hearing, and on August 1, 2023 issued Order No. 23-UI-232042, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as having been withdrawn. On August 5, 2023, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's argument in reaching this decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On June 16, 2023, the Department issued decision # 131949, finding that claimant was overpaid $5,398 in combined regular UI and FPUC benefits. Claimant thereafter filed a request to waive recovery of the overpayment balance of $5,398 with the Department.

(2) On July 31, 2023, the Department's representative asserted at hearing that claimant's waiver request had been granted and that claimant no longer had an outstanding overpayment balance. Audio Record at 6:36. Based on this representation, claimant withdrew his request for hearing. Audio Record at 10:13. However, the Department's computer system did not immediately reflect the granting of the waiver or the adjustment to claimant's overpayment balance.

(3) On August 5, 2023, claimant filed an application for review of Order No. 23-UI-232042 with EAB because he was concerned that the Department's records did not yet reflect an adjustment to the overpayment balance, based on a bill he received that was issued by the Department after Order No. 23-UI-232042 was served. Claimant's Written Argument at 1.

(4) On September 13, 2023, the Department's records were updated to reflect that claimant had no outstanding overpayment balance because the waiver had been granted.¹

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's application for review of Order No. 23-UI-232042 presents no justiciable controversy and is dismissed.

On August 5, 2023, claimant filed with EAB an application for review of an order dismissing his request for hearing because he had withdrawn the request. Claimant alleged facts that may have entitled him to reversal of the order under review, specifically that his motion to withdraw the request for hearing was premised on the Department's representation that there was no outstanding overpayment balance, and additional information learned after the hearing cast doubt on the accuracy of that representation. However, the Department's records indicate that claimant's account was updated on September 13, 2023 to reflect that claimant had no outstanding overpayment balance. Claimant is therefore no longer liable for the overpayment alleged in decision # 131949. Accordingly, there is no justiciable controversy before EAB based upon claimant's application for review. See accord Barcik v. Kubiacyk, 321 Or 174, 895 P2d 765 (1995). Because the case before EAB presents no justiciable controversy, the application for review of Order No. 23-UI-232042 is dismissed and the order remains undisturbed.

DECISION: The application for review filed August 5, 2023 is dismissed. Order No. 23-UI-232042 remains undisturbed.
