

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-0987

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On June 17, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information in accordance with the Department's rules and was not eligible for benefits for the week of May 22 through 28, 2022 (week 21-22) and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # 130516). On July 7, 2022, decision # 130516 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On October 18, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on February 15, 2023 issued Order No. 23-UI-216109, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by March 1, 2023. On March 6, 2023, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 31, 2023, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because the appellant questionnaire response was filed late, it would not be considered and a new order would not be issued. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's March 6, 2023 application for review.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On June 17, 2022, the Department mailed decision # 130516 to claimant's address of record on file with the Department. The decision stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than July 7, 2022." Exhibit 1 at 2. Claimant filed their request for hearing on October 18, 2022.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 23-UI-216109 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing to determine whether to allow claimant's late request for hearing and, if so, the merits of decision # 130516.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing on decision # 130516 was July 7, 2022. Claimant filed their request for hearing on October 18, 2022. The request for hearing was therefore late. Claimant's appellant questionnaire response suggested that claimant may not have timely received decision # 130516 due to problems with the mail, which may constitute good cause for the late filing. Further development of the record is therefore required.

Claimant stated in their questionnaire response that they received decision # 130516 on "3/1/23." EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. As claimant's request for hearing was filed on October 18, 2022, claimant likely was referring to having received Order No. 23-UI-216109, and the record is therefore unclear as to when, if ever, claimant received decision # 130516. Claimant also stated that they "did not receive letters from unemployment office, my address did not include apartment #," and "my apartment complex mailboxes have been vandalized and broken into repeatedly." EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. This suggests that claimant may have been delayed in filing their request for hearing due to having not timely received decision # 130516 in the mail. On remand, inquiry should therefore be made into when, if at all, claimant received decision # 130516, and if mail problems delayed timely filing, whether such problems were due to the Department misaddressing the decision or other factors beyond claimant's reasonable control. If good cause is found to extend the deadline for timely filing, further inquiry should be made into when any factors which prevented timely filing ceased, and whether claimant filed their late request for hearing within seven days thereafter.

For these reasons, Order No. 23-UI-216109 is reversed and the matter remanded for a hearing to determine whether to allow claimant's late request for hearing and, if so, the merits of decision # 130516.

DECISION: Order No. 23-UI-216109 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: September 14, 2023

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 23-UI-216109 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
