

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2023-EAB-1035-R

Request for Reconsideration Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On June 23, 2023, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant received a net amount of $3,168 in Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) benefits to which she was not entitled, and assessing an overpayment in that amount (decision # 130700).¹ Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On August 8, 2023, ALJ Adamson conducted a hearing, and on August 23, 2023, issued Order No. 23-UI-234023, modifying decision # 130700 by concluding that claimant received a net amount of $3,168 in PUA benefits to which she was not entitled, and assessing an overpayment in that amount that she was liable to repay to the Department pursuant to ORS 657.310.²

On September 12, 2023, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On October 20, 2023, EAB issued EAB Decision 2023-EAB-1035, reversing Order No. 23-UI-234023 by concluding that the Department was not authorized to assess, and claimant therefore not require to repay, the overpayment assessed in decision # 130700. On November 6, 2023, the Department filed a timely request for reconsideration of EAB Decision 2023-EAB-1035 with EAB.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The Department's request for reconsideration of EAB Decision 2023-EAB-1035 is dismissed.

¹ Decision # 130700 stated that this conclusion was based on a determination that claimant was ineligible for PUA benefits for the weeks at issue because she was eligible for Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC) benefits for the weeks at issue. Despite this determination being contained within decision # 130700, claimant's eligibility for PUA benefits was not noticed as an issue to be decided at the hearing on decision # 130700. Further, decision # 130700 alleged that claimant received a total of $4,920 in PUA benefits to which she was not entitled but that $1,752 of that amount was repaid via offset from other benefits prior to the issuance of the decision, resulting in the assessment of a net PUA overpayment of $3,168. Decision # 130700 did not state that claimant was required to repay, or liable to repay through deduction from future benefits, the net overpayment.

² Although Order No. 23-UI-234023 stated that it affirmed decision # 130700, it modified that decision by concluding that claimant was liable to repay the overpayment pursuant to ORS 657.310.

ORS 657.290(3) authorizes the Employment Appeals Board to reconsider any previous decision of the Employment Appeals Board, including “the making of a new decision to the extent necessary and appropriate for the correction of previous error of fact or law.” “Any party may request reconsideration to correct an error of material fact or law, or to explain any unexplained inconsistency with Employment Department rule, or officially stated Employment Department position, or prior Employment Department practice.” OAR 471-041-0145(1) (May 13, 2019). The request is subject to dismissal unless it includes a statement that a copy was provided to the other parties, and is filed on or before the 20th day after the decision sought to be reconsidered was mailed. OAR 471-041-0145(2).

The Department’s request for reconsideration of EAB Decision 2023-EAB-1035 did not include a statement that a copy was provided to the other parties. The Department’s request for reconsideration therefore is subject to dismissal under OAR 471-041-0145(2).

DECISION: The request for reconsideration filed November 6, 2023, is dismissed. EAB Decision 2023-EAB-1035 remains undisturbed.
