

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0003

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On April 8, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served a Notice of Determination for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) concluding that claimant was not entitled to PUA benefits effective December 27, 2020. On April 14, 2022, the Department served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant had failed to provide information to the Department and was therefore ineligible for benefits for the weeks of February 2, 2020, through June 26, 2021 (weeks 06-20 through 25-21) and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # 587051). On April 28, 2022, the April 8, 2022, PUA determination became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On May 4, 2022, decision # 587051 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On February 27, 2023, claimant filed late requests for hearing on the April 8, 2022, PUA determination and decision # 587051.

ALJ Kangas considered claimant's requests, and on July 11, 2023, issued Orders No. 23-UI-230044 and 23-UI-230041, dismissing claimant's requests for hearing on the April 8, 2022, PUA determination and decision # 587051, respectively, as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the requests by responding to an appellant questionnaire by July 25, 2023. On July 27, 2023, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and timely applications for review of Orders No. 23-UI-230044 and 23-UI-230041 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On December 27 and 28, 2023, ALJ Kangas mailed letters stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue additional orders regarding these matters because the questionnaire response was late. These matters come before EAB based upon claimant's July 27, 2023, applications for review of Orders No. 23-UI-230044 and 23-UI-230041.

Pursuant to OAR 471-041-0095 (October 29, 2006), EAB consolidated its review of Orders No. 23-UI-230044 and 23-UI-230041. For case-tracking purposes, this decision is being issued in duplicate (EAB Decisions 2024-EAB-0003 and 2024-EAB-0002).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant’s response to the appellant questionnaire, marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Orders No. 23-UI-230044 and 23-UI-230041 are set aside and these matters remanded for hearings on whether claimant’s late requests for hearing on the April 8, 2022, PUA determination and decision # 587051 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of those decisions.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The requests for hearing on the April 8, 2022, PUA determination and decision # 587051 were due by April 28, 2022, and May 4, 2022, respectively. Because claimant did not file their requests for hearing on either decision until February 27, 2023, the requests were late. On their appellant questionnaire response, claimant stated:

I never received the administrative decision[.] I was calling but they keep telling me I had to wait and that I had to provide more info[.] I wasn’t informed until Feb 27 that I needed to file an appeal [sic].

EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant further explained that they were not able to file their requests for hearing on time because they had been experiencing mail theft, and that they were “unaware until [they] called to follow up.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2.

If claimant did not receive the administrative decisions at issue due to mail theft or other issues relating to their receipt of mail, they may have filed the late requests for hearing due to factors beyond their reasonable control. However, further information is necessary to determine whether claimant’s late requests for hearing should be allowed. On remand, the ALJ should inquire as to whether claimant ever received either of the administrative decisions at issue; if so, when; if not, how and when claimant first learned of their existence or otherwise became aware of them; and what prompted them to file their requests for hearing when they did.

Orders No. 23-UI-230044 and 23-UI-230041 therefore are reversed, and these matters remanded for hearings on whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of the April 8, 2022, PUA determination and decision # 587051.

DECISION: Orders No. 23-UI-230044 and 23-UI-230041 are set aside, and these matters remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: January 4, 2024

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Orders No. 23-UI-230044 and 23-UI-230041 or return these matters to EAB. Only timely applications for review of the subsequent orders will cause these matters to return to EAB.
