

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0006

Late Applications for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On December 28, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of four administrative decisions concluding that claimant filed late claims for benefits for the weeks from January 24 through March 20, 2021 (weeks 04-21 through 11-21), March 21 through May 15, 2021 (weeks 12-21 through 19-21), May 16 through July 17, 2021 (weeks 20-21 through 28-21), and July 18 through September 4, 2021 (weeks 29-21 through 35-21), and was denied benefits for those weeks (decisions # 115226, 115716, 120544, and 121538, respectively). On January 17, 2023, decisions # 115226, 115716, 120544, and 121538 became final without claimant having filed requests for hearing.

On February 9, 2023, claimant filed late requests for hearing on decisions # 115226, 115716, 120544, and 121538. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's requests, and on June 28, 2023, issued Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003, dismissing claimant's requests for hearing on decisions # 115226, 115716, 120544, and 121538 as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the requests by responding to an appellant questionnaire by July 12, 2023. On July 18, 2023, Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003 became final without claimant having filed a response to the appellant questionnaire or applications for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On October 17, 2023, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and late applications for review of Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003 with EAB. On December 28, 2023, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because the appellant questionnaire response was late, it would not be considered and no new orders would be issued regarding these matters.

These matters come before EAB based on claimant's October 17, 2023, late applications for review of Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003. Pursuant to OAR 471-041-0095 (October 29, 2006), EAB consolidated its review of Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003. For case-tracking purposes, this decision is being issued in quadruplicate (EAB Decisions 2024-EAB-0005, 2024-EAB-0007, 2024-EAB-0004, and 2024-EAB-0006, respectively).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant’s response to the appellant questionnaire and the statement accompanying their late applications for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1 and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 23-UI-229006, mailed to claimant on June 28, 2023, stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 23-UI-229006 at 2. Order No. 23-UI-229006 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any party may appeal this Order by filing a Request for Review with the Employment Appeals Board no later than July 18, 2023.”

(2) Order No. 23-UI-229002, mailed to claimant on June 28, 2023, stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 23-UI-229002 at 2. Order No. 23-UI-229002 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any party may appeal this Order by filing a Request for Review with the Employment Appeals Board no later than July 18, 2023.”

(3) Order No. 23-UI-229007, mailed to claimant on June 28, 2023, stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 23-UI-229007 at 2. Order No. 23-UI-229007 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any party may appeal this Order by filing a Request for Review with the Employment Appeals Board no later than July 18, 2023.”

(4) Order No. 23-UI-229003, mailed to claimant on June 28, 2023, stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 23-UI-229003 at 2. Order No. 23-UI-229003 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any party may appeal this Order by filing a Request for Review with the Employment Appeals Board no later than July 18, 2023.”

(5) On June 22, 2023, claimant suffered a “heat stroke,” and on August 10, 2023, was excused by their medical provider from working from June 22 through July 20, 2023, for that reason. EAB Exhibit 1 at 2, 13.

(6) Claimant received Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003 shortly after they were mailed.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late applications for review are dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-

0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The applications for review of Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003 were due by July 18, 2023. Because claimant filed their applications for review of those orders on October 17, 2023, the applications for review were late.

Claimant included a written statement with their applications for review that explained why they were not timely filed. Claimant wrote, “I have been dealing with high blood pressure and accrued [sic] a heat stroke June 22, 2023.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. Claimant also included a note from their medical provider, dated August 10, 2023, which stated that claimant was to be excused from work from June 22 through July 20, 2023 “due to a health concern.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 13. This suggests that claimant’s medical condition was such that they may not have been able to file applications for review by July 18, 2023, which would be a circumstance beyond their reasonable control, and therefore would establish good cause to extend the filing deadline. According to claimant’s medical provider, however, claimant was able to return to work beginning July 21, 2023. It is therefore reasonable to infer that the circumstance that may have prevented timely filing ceased on that date, as claimant’s health had improved.

The record does not show that any factors or circumstances delayed claimant’s filing of applications for review beyond July 21, 2023. Because the applications for review were filed on October 17, 2023, more than seven days after the circumstances that may have prevented timely filing ceased, they were not filed within a “reasonable time.” Accordingly, claimant’s late applications for review of Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003 are dismissed.

DECISION: The applications for review of Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003 are dismissed. Orders No. 23-UI-229006, 23-UI-229002, 23-UI-229007, and 23-UI-229003 remain undisturbed.
