

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0055

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 22, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not eligible for benefits for the week of September 19 through September 25, 2021, because she did not actively seek work that week (decision # 164638). On November 12, 2021, decision # 164638 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On December 15, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on March 7, 2022, issued Order No. 22-UI-188011, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by March 21, 2022. On March 21, 2022, claimant filed a timely response to the appellant questionnaire.

On June 2, 2023, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed a letter stating that based on claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, Order No. 22-UI-188011 was cancelled and vacated, and a hearing would be scheduled on whether to allow claimant's late request for hearing and, if so, the merits of decision # 164638. Also on June 2, 2023, OAH served notice that the hearing was scheduled for June 16, 2023. On June 16, 2023, ALJ Sachet-Rung conducted the hearing, and on June 23, 2023, issued Order No. 23-UI-228562, allowing claimant's late request for hearing, but affirming decision # 164638 by concluding that claimant was not eligible for benefits for the week of September 19 through September 25, 2021 (week 38-21) because she did not actively seek work that week. On July 13, 2023, Order No. 23-UI-228562 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On January 5, 2024, claimant filed a late application for review with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is the written statement claimant included with her late application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit(s) will remain in the record.

FINDING OF FACT: (1) Order No. Order No. 23-UI-228562, mailed to claimant on June 23, 2023, stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. Order No. 23-UI-228562 at 5. Order No. Order No. 23-UI-228562 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before July 13, 2023, to be timely.”

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late application for review of Order No. Order No. 23-UI-228562 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 23-UI-228562 was due July 13, 2023. Because claimant did not file their application for review until January 5, 2024, the application for review was late. Claimant provided a written statement with the application for review. EAB Exhibit 1. In that statement, indicated that it was late because she was not aware that by being in an accident she could submit evidence regarding not being able to work, which prevented her from filing on time because items were missing, and which is why she thinks she had good cause to allow her late application for review. EAB Exhibit 1. However, Order No. 23-UI-228562 concluded that claimant did not actively seek work during the week at issue, and not that she was unable to work during that week. Claimant did not assert or show that factors or circumstances beyond her reasonable control prevented her from filing a timely application for review if she disagreed that conclusion. Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for the late application for review, and claimant’s late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed January 5, 2024, is dismissed. Order No. 23-UI-228562 remains undisturbed.
