

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0092

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On October 23, 2023, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to register for work in accordance with the Department's rules and was ineligible for benefits for the week of October 1, 2023 through October 7, 2023 (week 40-23) and until the reason for the denial had ended. On November 13, 2023, the October 7, 2023 administrative decision became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On December 15, 2023, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on December 27, 2023 issued Order No. 23-UI-244186, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by January 10, 2024. On January 11, 2024, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 23-UI-244186 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On January 30, 2024, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that claimant's questionnaire response would not be considered or another order issued regarding the matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's January 11, 2024 application for review of Order No. 23-UI-244186.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 23-UI-244186 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on the October 23, 2023 administrative decision should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010

(February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist. Under OAR 471-040-0010(1)(b)(A), good cause does not include “[f]ailure to receive a document due to not notifying the Employment Department . . . of an updated address while the person is claiming benefits[.]”

The deadline to file a request for hearing on the October 23, 2023 administrative decision was November 13, 2023. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until December 15, 2023, claimant’s hearing request was late.

In claimant’s appellant questionnaire response, claimant stated that they were “[n]ot sure” when they received the October 23, 2023 administrative decision but requested a hearing on the decision “[a]s soon as [they] found out [they] needed to” when they “talked to the lady on the phone.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant further stated that the reason they did not request a hearing before the deadline was that they “didn’t know [they] needed to,” that they filed their appeal “as soon as [they] knew [they] needed to (that Day),” and “that’s Because [they] got a call about [their] claim.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. This information suggests the possibility that claimant did not receive the October 23, 2023 administrative decision and was not otherwise aware of the decision or the deadline to appeal until the day claimant filed their late request for hearing.

If claimant did not receive the October 23, 2023 administrative decision and was not aware of the decision until the date they filed their appeal on December 15, 2023, good cause for claimant’s late request for hearing may exist. However, further development of the record is needed to determine whether claimant’s late request for hearing was due to a factor beyond claimant’s reasonable control and, if so, whether claimant filed within a reasonable time. On remand, the ALJ should inquire as to precisely when claimant received the October 23, 2023 administrative decision, and, if claimant did not receive the administrative decision, whether claimant was otherwise aware of the existence of the decision and the November 13, 2023 deadline to appeal. If the record on remand shows that claimant did not receive the decision, the ALJ should inquire as to whether claimant failed to receive the decision due to not updating their address with the Department while they were claiming benefits. To the extent the record on remand shows that a factor beyond claimant’s reasonable control, such as non-receipt of the decision, prevented a timely filing, the ALJ should ask questions to verify whether claimant’s December 15, 2023 request for hearing was filed within a seven-day “reasonable” time after that factor ceasing to exist.

Order No. 23-UI-244186 therefore is set aside, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of the October 23, 2023 administrative decision.

DECISION: Order No. 23-UI-244186 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: February 12, 2024

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 23-UI-244186 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
