

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0168

Moot Request for Hearing Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On December 19, 2023, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information in accordance with the Department's rules and was therefore ineligible for benefits from November 26 through December 9, 2023 (weeks 48-23 through 49-23) and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # 62548). On January 8, 2024, decision # 62548 became final without claimant having requested a hearing. On January 10, 2024, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on January 23, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-246298, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 6, 2024. On February 9, 2024, the Department vacated decision # 62548 and paid claimant benefits for weeks 48-23 and 49-23. On February 12, 2024, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 24-UI-246298 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On February 15, 2024, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because the appellant questionnaire response was late, it would not be considered and another order would not be issued in the matter. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's February 12, 2024, application for review of Order No. 24-UI-246298.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's appellant questionnaire response and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On December 19, 2023, the Department issued decision # 62548, concluding that claimant failed to provide requested information about why they did not return to work on a specified date, and was therefore ineligible for benefits for weeks 48-23 and 49-23 and until claimant provided the requested information. Exhibit 1 at 1.

(2) On January 10, 2024, claimant filed a request for hearing on decision # 62548. The request was dismissed as late by Order No. 24-UI-246298 on January 23, 2024. Claimant filed an application for review of Order No. 24-UI-246298 on February 12, 2024.

(3) The Department's records show that on February 9, 2024, decision # 62548 was "vacated" because claimant had "timely provided information." Their records also show that claimant was paid benefits for week 48-23 and 49-23 that day.¹

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's request for hearing on decision # 62548 presents no justiciable controversy and is subject to dismissal.

Prior to claimant filing their timely application for review of Order No. 24-UI-246298, the Department cancelled decision # 62548 and determined that claimant was eligible for benefits for weeks 48-23 and 49-23. Because decision # 62548 and the period of ineligibility it imposed are no longer in effect, claimant's request for hearing presents no justiciable controversy, and is subject to dismissal as moot. ORS 657.270(7)(a)(D) ("The administrative law judge may dismiss a request for hearing . . . if: . . . The issues are resolved by cancellation or amendment of the decision that is the subject of the hearing request[.]"); See accord Barcik v. Kubiacyk, 321 Or 174, 895 P2d 765 (1995). Accordingly, Order No. 24-UI-246298 is set aside, and claimant's request for hearing on decision # 62548 is dismissed as moot.

DECISION: Order No. 24-UI-246298 is set aside. Claimant's request for hearing on decision # 62548 is dismissed as moot.
