

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0370

Reversed
Request to Reopen Allowed
Merits Hearing Required

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On February 13, 2024, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant voluntarily quit work without good cause and was therefore disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective November 5, 2023 (decision # 141944). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On February 29, 2024, notice was mailed to the parties that a hearing was scheduled for March 13, 2024. Claimant failed to appear at the hearing, and on March 13, 2024, ALJ Mellor issued Order No. 24-UI-249987, dismissing claimant's request for hearing due to their failure to appear. On March 18, 2024, claimant filed a timely request to reopen the March 13, 2024, hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the request, and on March 26, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-250894, denying the request to reopen and leaving Order No. 24-UI-249987 undisturbed. On April 15, 2024, claimant filed an application for review of Order No. 24-UI-250894 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's supplemental statement regarding why they missed the hearing, which has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. This information is admitted as necessary to complete the record. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On February 29, 2024, notice was mailed to claimant's address of record on file with the Department that a hearing was scheduled for March 13, 2024, at 10:45 a.m. Claimant timely received the notice.

(2) Claimant has been diagnosed with attention deficit disorder (ADD) and is undergoing testing for "cognitive processing and memory deficit concerns." EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. As a result, claimant relies on an electronic calendar to recall appointments and other matters. When claimant received the notice of hearing, they entered the hearing information into the calendar incorrectly, and missed the hearing for that reason.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's request to reopen the March 14, 2024, hearing is allowed and a hearing on the merits of decision # 141944 is required.

ORS 657.270(5) provides that any party who failed to appear at a hearing may request to reopen the hearing, and the request will be allowed if it was filed within 20 days of the date the hearing decision was issued and shows good cause for failing to appear. "Good cause" exists when the requesting party's failure to appear at the hearing arose from an excusable mistake or from factors beyond the party's reasonable control. OAR 471-040-0040(2) (February 10, 2012). The party requesting reopening shall set forth the reason(s) for missing the hearing in a written statement, which the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) shall consider in determining whether good cause exists for failing to appear at the hearing. OAR 471-040-0040(3).

Claimant's request to reopen was filed April 15, 2024, within 20 days after the issuance of Order No. 24-UI-250894. The request contained a written statement explaining why claimant failed to appear at the hearing. The request therefore met the threshold requirements for consideration.

Claimant failed to appear at the hearing because they incorrectly entered the hearing information in their calendar. The order under review concluded that this was not an excusable mistake because it did not involve "the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply." Order No. 24-UI-250894 at 2. The record does not support this conclusion.

Claimant made substantial efforts to attend the hearing by attempting to correctly record the date and time of the hearing in their calendar. It can reasonably be inferred that claimant's medical conditions impaired their ability to accurately enter the information, or to use other means to remind themselves to attend the hearing. Therefore, more likely than not, claimant's failure to attend the hearing was the result of an inability to recall the date and time of the hearing despite substantial efforts to comply. Accordingly, the record shows that claimant missed the hearing due to an excusable mistake. Claimant's request to reopen the March 13, 2024, hearing is therefore allowed and the matter is remanded for a reopened hearing on the merits of decision # 141944.

DECISION: Order No. 24-UI-250894 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: May 28, 2024

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 24-UI-250894 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
