

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0446

Reversed
Late Request for Hearing Allowed
Merits Hearing Required

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On February 20, 2024, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged for misconduct and was therefore disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective November 5, 2023 (decision # 153203). On March 11, 2024, decision # 153203 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On April 1, 2024, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on May 1, 2024 issued Order No. 24-UI-253326, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by May 15, 2024. On May 16, 2024, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's appellant questionnaire response and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Decision # 153203, mailed to claimant's address of record on February 20, 2024, stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than March 11, 2024." Exhibit 1 at 2.

(2) On February 22, 2024, claimant received decision # 153203.

(3) On February 27, 2024, claimant attempted to file a request for hearing via the Department's website, but the request was not received or filed.

(4) On April 1, 2024, claimant sent an inquiry regarding the status of the appeal they believed they had filed on February 27, 2024, which was construed as a late request for hearing.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late request for hearing is allowed and a hearing on the merits of decision # 153203 is required.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The request for hearing on decision # 153203 was due by March 11, 2024. Claimant's request was filed April 1, 2024, and therefore the request was late. The record shows that claimant had good cause for the late filing.

Claimant wrote in their appellant questionnaire response that they received decision # 153203 on February 22, 2024 and attempted to file a request for hearing using the Department's website on February 27, 2024. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. The record does not show why claimant was unsuccessful in filing this request, but it can reasonably be inferred that it was caused by a factor beyond claimant's reasonable control, of which claimant was unaware. This factor ceased on April 1, 2024, when claimant inquired about the status of their appeal and the inquiry was construed as a late request for hearing. Therefore, good cause exists to extend the deadline for timely filing, and the late request for hearing was filed within a "reasonable time" after the factor that prevented timely filing ceased.

For these reasons, claimant's late request for hearing is allowed, and the matter remanded for a hearing on the merits of decision # 153203.

DECISION: Order No. 24-UI-253326 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: June 25, 2024

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 24-UI-253326 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
