

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0505-R

Request for Reconsideration Allowed
EAB Decision 2024-EAB-0505 Adhered to on Reconsideration

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 29, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information in accordance with the Department's rules and was ineligible for benefits for the weeks from April 3 through April 16, 2022 (weeks 14-22 and 15-22) and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # 83349). On May 19, 2022, decision # 83349 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing.

On January 12, 2023, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on May 19, 2023, issued Order No. 23-UI-225504, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by June 2, 2023. On June 6, 2023, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire. On October 3, 2023, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed a letter stating that Order No. 23-UI-225504 was vacated and that a hearing would be scheduled to determine whether to allow claimant's late request for hearing and, if so, the merits of decision # 83349.

On October 17, 2023, ALJ Frank convened a hearing at which claimant appeared and requested a postponement, which was granted. On November 15, 2023, notice was mailed to claimant that the hearing had been rescheduled for November 29, 2023. Claimant failed to appear for this hearing, and on November 29, 2023, ALJ Frank issued Order No. 23-UI-242146, dismissing claimant's late request for hearing due to his failure to appear. On December 19, 2023, Order No. 23-UI-242146 became final without claimant having filed a request to reopen the hearing.

On February 28, 2024, claimant filed a late request to reopen the November 29, 2023, hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the request, and on March 26, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-250876, denying the request and leaving Order No. 23-UI-242146 undisturbed. On April 15, 2024, Order No. 24-UI-250876 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On June 14, 2024, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 24-UI-250876 with EAB. On July 18, 2024, EAB issued EAB Decision 2024-EAB-0505, dismissing claimant's late application for review without prejudice. On August 6, 2024, claimant filed a timely request for reconsideration of EAB Decision 2024-EAB-0505. This decision is issued pursuant to EAB's authority under ORS 657.290(3).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's request for reconsideration and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 2, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 2 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 24-UI-250876, mailed to claimant on March 26, 2024, stated, "You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed." Order No. 24-UI-250876 at 4. Order No. 24-UI-250876 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, "Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before April 15, 2024, to be timely." Claimant received the order prior to April 15, 2024.

(2) In "the second week of March [2024]," claimant's father suffered an ankle injury "which kept him off his feet for more than a week." EAB Exhibit 2 at 6. At this time, claimant's mother was in "rapidly declining health." EAB Exhibit 2 at 6. Claimant provided care for his father while he recovered from the injury, and for his mother until her death on April 28, 2024.

(3) As of March 26, 2024, claimant believed that he "could still request [and] be granted a Hearing &/or Appeal with 'good cause,'" and that the difficulties he was experiencing as a result of his parents' health problems would constitute good cause to delay filing appeals related to his unemployment insurance claim. EAB Exhibit 2 at 8.

(4) On June 14, 2024, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 24-UI-250876 with EAB.

(5) On July 18, 2024, EAB issued EAB Decision 2024-EAB-0505, dismissing claimant's late application for review without prejudice.

(6) On August 6, 2024, claimant filed a request for reconsideration of EAB Decision 2024-EAB-0505.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's request for reconsideration is allowed. On reconsideration, EAB Decision 2024-EAB-0505 is adhered to, as clarified herein.

Reconsideration. ORS 657.290(3) authorizes the Employment Appeals Board to reconsider any previous decision of the Employment Appeals Board, including "the making of a new decision to the extent necessary and appropriate for the correction of previous error of fact or law.” The request is subject to dismissal unless it includes a statement that a copy was provided to the other parties, and is filed on or before the 20th day after the decision sought to be reconsidered was mailed. OAR 471-041-0145(2) (May 13, 2019).

Claimant’s request for reconsideration was filed within 20 days after the decision sought to be reconsidered was mailed, and asserted that reconsideration was appropriate to correct a previous error of fact or law. Accordingly, claimant’s request met the threshold requirements for reconsideration and is allowed.

Late application for review. An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 24-UI-250876 was due by April 15, 2024. Because claimant did not file his application for review until June 14, 2024, the application for review was late.

Claimant provided an additional statement with his request for reconsideration describing the circumstances that delayed timely filing of the application for review. See EAB Exhibit 2. The statement did not assert that claimant failed to timely receive Order No. 24-UI-250876. Instead, it explained that claimant, believing he had good cause to do so, delayed taking action on his pending unemployment insurance appeals as he cared for his ailing parents, particularly his mother, during the timely filing period of March 26, 2024, through April 15, 2024.¹ EAB Exhibit 2 at 6-7. This was undoubtedly a stressful time for claimant, particularly in light of his mother’s death occurring shortly thereafter on April 28, 2024. Even allowing that these circumstances were beyond claimant’s reasonable control and prevented him from timely filing his application for review, it can nevertheless reasonably be inferred that these circumstances ceased more than seven days prior to June 14, 2024, when claimant filed the late application for review.

Therefore, even if good cause existed to extend the filing deadline to one month after claimant’s mother’s death, to account for claimant’s mental state and other obligations that typically follow the death of a family member, the circumstances that prevented timely filing ceased by the end of May 2024 at the latest. Because claimant’s application for review was filed more than seven days later, on June 14, 2024, it was not filed within a “reasonable time.” Accordingly, claimant’s late application for review was properly dismissed, and EAB Decision 2024-EAB-0505 is adhered to on reconsideration.

DECISION: Claimant's request for reconsideration is allowed. EAB Decision 2024-EAB-0505 is adhered to on reconsideration.
