

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0597

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On June 24, 2024, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant failed to provide information in accordance with the Department's rules and was ineligible for benefits for the week of June 16 through 22, 2024 (week 25-24) and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # L0004874342).¹ On July 15, 2024, decision # L0004874342 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On July 23, 2024, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered the request, and on July 25, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-260315, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by August 8, 2024. On August 14, 2024, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 24-UI-260315 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's appellant questionnaire response and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 24-UI-260315 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0004874342.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010

¹ Decision # L0004874342 stated that the period of ineligibility began on June 21, 2024. However, this is presumed to be a scrivener's error as benefit weeks begin on Sundays, and June 21, 2024, was a Friday.

(February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The request for hearing on decision # L0004874342 was due by July 15, 2024. Because claimant’s request was filed on July 23, 2024, the request was late.

Claimant filed a response to the appellant questionnaire. However, it appears that claimant answered at least some of the questions with regard to Order No. 24-UI-260315 rather than decision # L0004874342. For example, the questionnaire asked when claimant received the administrative decision, and claimant responded that it “was postmarked on July 25.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. Nevertheless, claimant also wrote that they called the Department on July 22, 2024, to inquire why their claims had not been paid, which suggests that claimant may not have been aware at that time that decision # L0004874342 had been issued. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant’s answers also suggested that claimant had been delayed in checking their mail around July 13, 2024, due to a death in the family, which also may have prevented timely filing. Further development of the record is therefore warranted.

On remand, inquiry should be made into whether and when claimant received decision # L0004874342, and whether claimant’s failure to check the mail regularly delayed their receipt of the decision. Further, inquiry should be made into whether any other factors prevented timely filing, and whether the factors constituted circumstances beyond claimant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake.

If good cause is found to extend the deadline for timely filing, additional inquiry should be made into when the factors that prevented timely filing ceased, and whether claimant’s late request for hearing was filed within a seven-day “reasonable time” thereafter.

For these reasons, Order No. 24-UI-260315 is set aside and the matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant’s late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0004874342.

DECISION: Order No. 24-UI-260315 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: August 29, 2024

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 24-UI-260315 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
