

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0600

Late Applications for Review Dismissed Without Prejudice

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On July 13, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit work without good cause and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective March 14, 2021 (decision # 65340). On August 2, 2021, decision # 65340 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On May 4, 2022, the Department served notice of an administrative decision based partly on decision # 65340, concluding that claimant received benefits to which they were not entitled, and assessing an overpayment of $2,550 in Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC) and $3,000 in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits that claimant was required to repay (decision # 110836). On May 24, 2022, decision # 110836 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On July 27, 2022, claimant filed late requests for hearing on decisions # 65340 and 110836.

ALJ Kangas considered claimant's requests, and on August 16, 2022, issued Orders No. 22-UI-200612 and 22-UI-200613, dismissing the requests as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the requests by responding to an appellant questionnaire by August 30, 2022. On September 6, 2022, Orders No. 22-UI-200612 and 22-UI-200613 became final without claimant having filed a response to the appellant questionnaire or applications for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 13, 2024, claimant filed late applications for review of Orders No. 22-UI-200612 and 22-UI-200613 with EAB.

Pursuant to OAR 471-041-0095 (October 29, 2006), EAB consolidated its review of Orders No. 22-UI-200612 and 22-UI-200613. For case-tracking purposes, this decision is being issued in duplicate (EAB Decisions 2024-EAB-0599 and 2024-EAB-0600).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of an August 24, 2022, address-change report generated by the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) and a July 29, 2024, email that claimant sent to the Department and OAH. This evidence has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB

Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The application for review is dismissed without prejudice.

On August 13, 2024, the appellant filed applications for review of Orders No. 22-UI-200612 and 22-UI-200613 with EAB. ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(b) required the applications for review to be filed no later than September 6, 2022. The appellant's applications for review are therefore late, and these applications for review are dismissed.

The deadline for filing an application for review may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of good cause. See ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070 (May 13, 2019). If the appellant believes they have good cause and filed their late application for review within a reasonable time, the appellant may request that EAB reconsider this decision under OAR 471-041-0145 (May 13, 2019).

EAB will dismiss any request for reconsideration that does not include all five of the following:

1. The appellant must file the request for reconsideration within 20 days of the date this decision was mailed; the date this decision was mailed is August 27, 2024, and
2. The appellant must include a statement on the request for reconsideration declaring that they sent a copy of the request to the other party, and
3. The appellant must provide additional specific details about the reason they filed late applications for review. For example, the appellant should include specific information about the date, if at all, that they received the ALJ's orders, whether they read the orders, whether they agreed or disagreed with the ALJ's orders, the reason(s) why they did not file the applications for review before the deadline, how the reason(s) affected their ability to file timely applications for review, when the appellant updated their address with OAH, whether the appellant failed to receive the ALJ's orders because they were mailed to an incorrect address, what prompted the appellant to send the July 29, 2024 email that day (as opposed to some other date), how and when the appellant learned about the ALJ's orders if they did not originally receive them,<sup>1</sup> what prompted the appellant to file their applications for review on August 13, 2024 (as opposed to some other date), and any other specific details that might help EAB determine whether or not the appellant had "good cause," which means factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing a timely application for review, and
4. The appellant must provide the date the circumstances that prevented them from filing timely applications for review (which they listed in response to #3, above) ended, and
5. The appellant must provide sufficient information to prove that they filed their applications for review within seven days of that date.

The appellant may file a request for reconsideration in many ways; please note that you need only file one request for reconsideration:

1. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to fill out the “File a Written Argument” form, available on EAB’s website: <https://www.oregon.gov/EMPLOY/EAB/Pages/default.aspx>, or
2. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to send an email to EAB at OED\_EAB\_OFFICE@employ.oregon.gov, or
3. Send the request by U.S. mail or another delivery service, addressed to 875 Union St NE, Salem, Oregon 97311, or
4. Send EAB a fax at 503-378-2129.

DECISION: The applications for review filed August 13, 2024, are dismissed without prejudice. Orders No. 22-UI-200612 and 22-UI-200613 remain undisturbed.
