

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0663

Affirmed
Late Request for Hearing Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 25, 2024, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant voluntarily quit work without good cause and was therefore disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective November 5, 2023 (decision # L0003329688). On April 15, 2024, decision # L0003329688 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On April 17, 2024, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on July 30, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-260768, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by August 13, 2024. On August 19, 2024, Order No. 24-UI-260768 became final without claimant having filed a response to the appellant questionnaire or an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On September 6, 2024, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire. ALJ Kangas reviewed the filing, and on September 10, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-265584, canceling Order No. 24-UI-260768 and re-dismissing the request for hearing as late, without considering the contents of the late appellant questionnaire response. On September 16, 2024, claimant filed an application for review of Order No. 24-UI-265584 with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is the statement accompanying claimant's application for review and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

Additionally, claimant submitted to EAB a letter from her medical provider that was not considered. While the letter is relevant to the work separation at issue in decision # L0003329688, the time period discussed in the letter is not relevant to the issue currently under review, which is the timeliness of claimant's late request for hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Decision # L0003329688, mailed to claimant’s address of record on file with the Department on March 25, 2024, stated, “You have the right to appeal our decision and request a hearing if you believe our decision is wrong. We must receive your request for a hearing no later than April 15, 2024.” Exhibit 1 at 2 (emphasis in original).

(2) On or around March 25, 2024, claimant received decision # L0003329688. Claimant waited until April 17, 2024, to file a request for hearing because they “didn’t understand the appeal process had a time limit.” Exhibit 3 at 6.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late request for hearing is dismissed.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The request for hearing on decision # L0003329688 was due by April 15, 2024. Because claimant’s request for hearing was filed on April 17, 2024, the request was late. Claimant stated in her appellant questionnaire response that she received decision # L0003329688 on the date it was issued, but did not file a request for hearing until April 17, 2024. Exhibit 3 at 5. Further, where the questionnaire asked why the request for hearing was not filed by the April 15, 2024, deadline, claimant wrote, “I didn’t understand the appeal process had a time limit.” Exhibit 3 at 6.

The record does not suggest that reading and understanding the appeal deadline, printed in bold on the administrative decision, was beyond claimant’s reasonable control. Similarly, claimant’s mistake as to whether a deadline for appeal existed is not an “excusable mistake” within the meaning of the administrative rules because it did not, for example, raise a due process issue, and was not the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply. Accordingly, claimant has not shown good cause to extend the deadline for timely filing.

For these reasons, claimant’s late request for hearing is dismissed, and decision # L0003329688 remains undisturbed.

DECISION: Order No. 24-UI-265584 is affirmed.
