

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0665

Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 10, 2024, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit working for the employer without good cause and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective March 17, 2024 (decision # L0003600457). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On July 25, 2024, ALJ Chiller conducted a hearing, and on August 5, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-261532, modifying decision # L0003600457 by concluding that claimant quit without good cause and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective February 18, 2024.¹ On August 26, 2024, Order No. 24-UI-261532 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On September 19, 2024, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 24-UI-261532 with EAB.

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: Claimant filed a written argument, in the form of an email sent to EAB on October 1, 2024.² Claimant did not declare that he provided a copy of his argument to the opposing party or parties as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (May 13, 2019). The argument also contained information that was not part of the hearing record, and was not relevant and material to EAB's determination of whether to allow claimant's late application for review, as required by OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019). EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision. See ORS 657.275(2).

¹ Although Order No. 24-UI-261532 stated that it affirmed decision # L0003600457, it modified that decision by changing the effective date of the disqualification from March 17, 2024, to February 18, 2024. Order No. 24-UI-261532 at 3.

² Claimant's written argument referenced Case No. 2024-UI-10619, which is the number of a companion case relating to a separate matter than the one addressed in this decision. Despite this, claimant's written argument and attached documents do not appear to address the matter at issue in Case No. 2024-UI-10619. Instead, they address, in part, the merits of decision # L0003600457, which is on appeal in this case. While EAB did not consider those materials because they were not relevant and material to the determination of whether claimant's late application for review should be allowed, EAB nevertheless considered the October 1, 2024, email to be correctly associated with this case because it addressed the merits of decision # L0003600457.

Claimant's written argument raised concerns about his weekly benefit amount, and included proof of earnings apparently in support of his contention that he is eligible for a higher weekly benefit amount. The question of claimant's weekly benefit amount is not before EAB in this case, and EAB therefore has no jurisdiction to address that matter. If claimant wishes to contest his weekly benefit amount, he is advised to contact the Department directly.

FINDING OF FACT: (1) Order No. 24-UI-261532, mailed to claimant on August 5, 2024, stated, "You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed." Order No. 24-UI-261532 at 3. Order No. 24-UI-261532 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, "Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before August 26, 2024, to be timely."

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late application for review of Order No. 24-UI-261532 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). "Good cause" means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant's reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A "reasonable time" is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 24-UI-261532 was due by August 26, 2024. Because claimant did not file his application for review until September 19, 2024, the application for review was late. Claimant's application for review did not include a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented him from filing the application for review by the August 26, 2024, deadline.³ Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for the late application for review, and claimant's late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed September 19, 2024, is dismissed. Order No. 24-UI-261532 remains undisturbed.

Moreover, claimant's written argument contains no information explaining why the application for review was late.
