

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0792

Affirmed
Request to Reopen Denied

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 8, 2024, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was an employee of an educational institution and was denied unemployment insurance benefits during a school recess period because their wages and hours with non-educational employers were not sufficient to entitle them to benefits during the recess (decision # L0003577824). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On September 10, 2024, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) served notice of a hearing on decision # L0003577824 scheduled for September 23, 2024, at 3:30 p.m.

On September 23, 2024, claimant failed to appear for the hearing. On September 25, 2024, ALJ Monroe issued Order No. 24-UI-267239, dismissing the hearing request due to claimant's failure to appear. On October 3, 2024, claimant filed a request to reopen. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on October 24, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-270593, denying claimant's request to reopen and leaving Order No. 24-UI-267239 undisturbed. On November 6, 2024, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB did not consider claimant's written argument when reaching this decision because they did not include a statement declaring that they provided a copy of their argument to the opposing party as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (May 13, 2019).

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On September 10, 2024, OAH mailed claimant notice that a telephone hearing was scheduled for September 23, 2024. Claimant received the notice of hearing prior to the hearing date. The hearing notice stated, "At the time of hearing, you must call 1-877-622-4041. . . If you requested the hearing and you do not call 1-877-622-4041 at the time set for your hearing, the hearing will be dismissed." Exhibit 3 at 1 (emphasis in original).

(2) On September 23, 2024, claimant failed to appear at the hearing because they believed that a telephone call would be placed to them, rather than claimant having to call into the hearing.

(3) On October 3, 2024, claimant filed a request to reopen the September 23, 2024, hearing that contained an explanation for why claimant failed to appear at the hearing.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s request to reopen the September 23, 2024, hearing is denied.

ORS 657.270(5) provides that any party who failed to appear at a hearing may request to reopen the hearing, and the request will be allowed if it was filed within 20 days of the date the hearing decision was issued and shows good cause for failing to appear. “Good cause” exists when the requesting party’s failure to appear at the hearing arose from an excusable mistake or from factors beyond the party’s reasonable control. OAR 471-040-0040(2) (February 10, 2012). The party requesting reopening shall set forth the reason(s) for missing the hearing in a written statement, which the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) shall consider in determining whether good cause exists for failing to appear at the hearing. OAR 471-040-0040(3).

Claimant’s request to reopen the September 23, 2024, hearing was filed on October 3, 2024, which was within 20 days of the date the order dismissing their request for hearing was issued (September 25, 2024). The request to reopen also contained an explanation for why claimant failed to appear at the hearing. Therefore, claimant’s request to reopen met the threshold requirements for consideration.

Claimant’s explanation for missing the hearing included with the request to reopen was as follows:

I called at 3:40 Sep 23rd & no answer[.] I was under the impression someone would call me at 3:15. That’s the time my letter said.

Exhibit 5 at 1.

As the hearing notice instructed that claimant must call at the scheduled time to participate, and that claimant’s request for hearing would be dismissed if claimant failed to call, claimant has not shown that their failure to call into the hearing resulted from a circumstance beyond claimant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake. Although claimant’s failure to appear may have been a mistake, it was not an “excusable mistake” within the meaning of the administrative rules. The mistake did not, for example, raise a due process issue, and was not the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply. Good cause has not been shown to reopen the hearing, and claimant’s request to reopen is denied.

DECISION: Order No. 24-UI-270593 is affirmed.

D. Hettle and A. Steger-Bentz;
S. Serres, not participating.
