

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2024-EAB-0855

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 19, 2024, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of a wage and potential benefit report (WPBR) concluding that claimant established a monetarily valid claim for unemployment insurance benefits with a weekly benefit amount of $190 and maximum benefit amount of $3,298 (decision # L0003688143). On April 29, 2024, decision # L0003688143 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On May 22, 2024, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Scott considered the request, and on August 26, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-263721, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by September 9, 2024. On September 10, 2024, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire. ALJ Kangas reviewed the response, and on November 26, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-274835, cancelling Order No. 24-UI-263721, declining to consider the appellant questionnaire response because it was late, and re-dismissing claimant's late request for hearing on decision # L0003688143. On December 16, 2024, Order No. 24-UI-274835 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On December 18, 2024, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 24-UI-274835 with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is the statement included with claimant's late application for review, has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, saying why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 24-UI-274835, mailed to claimant on November 26, 2024, stated, "You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed." Order No. 24-UI-274835 at 2. Order No. 24-UI-274835 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, "Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before December 16, 2024, to be timely."

(2) Claimant received Order No. 24-UI-274835 shortly after it was mailed. Claimant “forgot about the date” stated in the order as the deadline to file an application for review. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

(3) On December 18, 2024, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 24-UI-274835.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s late application for review of Order No. 24-UI-274835 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 24-UI-274835 was due by December 16, 2024. Claimant’s application for review was filed on December 18, 2024, and was therefore late. Claimant wrote in the statement accompanying the late application for review that they “totally forgot about the date of the letter” because they were preoccupied with other important activities. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant further wrote that they would “learn how to manage [their] time more efficiently so it won’t happen again.” EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. It can reasonably be inferred from this statement that despite claimant’s other obligations, it was within claimant’s reasonable control to note the appeal deadline and file an application for review prior to that deadline. Accordingly, good cause has not been shown to extend the filing deadline, and claimant’s late application for review is dismissed.¹

DECISION: The application for review filed December 18, 2024 is dismissed. Order No. 24-UI-274835 remains undisturbed.
