EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION 2025-EAB-0023

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On September 10, 2024, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not actively seeking work for the week of August 25, 2024, through August 31, 2024 (week 35-24) and therefore was not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for that week (decision # L0006031803). On September 30, 2024, decision # L0006031803 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On December 5, 2024, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # L0006031803.

ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on December 23, 2024, issued Order No. 24-UI-277779, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by January 6, 2025. On January 8, 2025, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 24-UI-277779 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, saying why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 24-UI-277779 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # L0006031803 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The request for hearing on decision # L0006031803 was due by September 30, 2024. Because claimant did not file their request for hearing until December 5, 2024, the request was late. On their response to the appellant questionnaire, claimant stated that they "didn't receive any mail on time for [their] appeal" because they were "homeless living at a shelter" and had no place to receive mail. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant further suggested that a former neighbor agreed to receive claimant's mail, but that they did not provide claimant with their mail "until after [claimant] needed it," despite the fact that claimant had been checking on the mail on a weekly basis. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

If claimant did not receive a copy of decision # L0006031803 on time because they were homeless and unable to regularly get their mail, claimant may have failed to file a timely request for hearing due to factors beyond their reasonable control. However, further information is necessary to decide whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed. At the remand hearing, the ALJ should ask questions about when claimant became homeless or otherwise unable to regularly get their mail; where mail intended for claimant was delivered given that claimant was homeless (such as whether claimant forwarded mail to the neighbor's address or arranged to have the neighbor check the mail at claimant's address of record); what efforts claimant made to obtain their mail from their former neighbor; any other factors affecting claimant's ability to receive their mail on time; and when claimant first received or was otherwise made aware of decision # L0006031803 and their right to appeal that decision. Additionally, if claimant did not file their request for hearing within seven days of when they first received or were otherwise made aware of decision # L0006031803 and their right to appeal, the ALJ should inquire as to whether any other factors prevented claimant from filing their request for hearing at that point and, if so, when those factors ceased.

Order No. 24-UI-277779 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # L0006031803.

DECISION: Order No. 24-UI-277779 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Serres and A. Steger-Bentz;

D. Hettle, not participating.

DATE of Service: February 11, 2025

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 24-UI-277779 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
