

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2025-EAB-0097

Late Application for Review Dismissed Without Prejudice

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 28, 2022, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not available for work from March 1, 2020, through May 8, 2021 (weeks 10-20 through 18-21) and was not eligible for benefits for those weeks and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # 70730). On April 18, 2022, decision # 70730 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing.

On July 1, 2022, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on October 11, 2022, issued Order No. 22-UI-204777, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by October 25, 2022. On October 31, 2022, Order No. 22-UI-204777 became final without claimant having filed a response to the appellant questionnaire or an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On February 16, 2025, claimant sent an email to EAB that EAB construed as a late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-204777.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's written statement submitted with their application for review. The written statement is marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must send the objection to EAB in writing, stating why they object, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late application for review of Order No. 22-UI-204777 is dismissed without prejudice.

On February 16, 2025, claimant filed an application for review of Order No. 22-UI-204777 with EAB. ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(b) required the application for review to be filed no later than October 31, 2022. Claimant's application for review is therefore late, and this application for review is dismissed.

The deadline for filing an application for review may be extended a reasonable time if the applicant can show they have good cause to extend the deadline. See ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070 (May 13, 2019). If claimant believes they have good cause and filed their late application for review within a reasonable time, claimant may ask EAB to reconsider this decision under OAR 471-041-0145 (May 13, 2019).

EAB will dismiss any request for reconsideration that does not include all five of the following:

1. Claimant must file the request for reconsideration by April 3, 2025, and
2. Claimant must state in the request for reconsideration that they sent a copy of the request to the other party, and
3. Claimant must provide more specific details about the reason they filed a late application for review. For example, claimant should include specific information about the date they received the ALJ's Order No. 22-UI-204777, whether they read and disagreed with it, and how they were prevented from filing their application for review by October 31, 2022. Claimant should include specific details that might help EAB decide whether or not claimant had "good cause," which means factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing a timely application for review, and
4. Claimant must provide the date the circumstances that prevented them from filing a timely application for review ended (the circumstances they listed in response to #3, above), and
5. Claimant must provide sufficient information to prove that they filed their application for review within seven days of the date the circumstances that prevented them from filing a timely application for review ended.

There are several ways to file a request for reconsideration:

1. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to fill out the "File a Written Argument" form, available on EAB's website: <https://www.oregon.gov/EMPLOY/EAB/Pages/default.aspx>, or
2. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to send an email to EAB at appealsboard@employ.oregon.gov, or
3. Send the request by U.S. mail or another delivery service, addressed to Employment Appeals Board, 875 Union St NE, Salem, Oregon 97311, or
4. Send EAB a fax at 503-378-2129.

Please note that you need only file one request for reconsideration.

DECISION: The application for review filed February 16, 2025 is dismissed without prejudice. Order No. 22-UI-204777 remains undisturbed.
