

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2025-EAB-0275

Application for Review Dismissed
No Justiciable Controversy

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 3, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged by the employer for misconduct and disqualified from receiving benefits beginning February 16, 2025 (decision # L0009457787).<sup>1</sup> Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On April 22, 2025, ALJ Bender conducted a hearing, and on April 29, 2025, issued Order No. 25-UI-290883, reversing decision # L0009457787 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the discharge. On May 8, 2025, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 25-UI-290883, issued on April 29, 2025, concluded that claimant was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on her discharge by the employer.

(2) Department records show that on April 30, 2025, the Department issued decision # L0010600014, purporting to amend decision # L0009457787 but stating the same conclusions regarding claimant's discharge by the employer and denial of benefits as decision # L0009457787.<sup>2</sup>

(3) On May 8, 2025, claimant filed an application for review of Order No. 25-UI-290883 with EAB that did not explain why claimant was requesting review of a fully favorable decision.

<sup>1</sup> Decision # L0009457787 stated that claimant was denied benefits from February 16, 2025, to February 14, 2026. However, decision # L0009457787 should have stated that claimant was disqualified from receiving benefits beginning February 16, 2025, and until she earned four times her weekly benefit amount. See ORS 657.176.

<sup>2</sup> EAB has taken notice of this fact, which is contained in Employment Department records. OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, stating why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the noticed fact will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s application for review of Order No. 25-UI-290883 presents no justiciable controversy and is dismissed.

On May 8, 2025, claimant filed with EAB an application for review of an order that was fully favorable to claimant. Oregon courts follow the principle that a review on appeal may only be provided for justiciable controversies. See, e.g., Gortmaker v. Seaton, 252 Or. 440, 442, 450 P.2d 547 (1969). A justiciable controversy exists when the interests of the parties to the action conflict with each other, and the appeal will have some practical effect on the rights of the parties to the controversy. Barcik v. Kubiacyk, 321 Or 174, 895 P2d 765 (1995). To show a practical effect on their rights, an appellant must seek “substantive relief” through their appeal. Krisor v. Henry, 256 Or. App. 56, 300 P.3d 199 (Or. Ct. App. 2013).

Claimant did not assign error to any portion of Order No. 25-UI-290883, did not request reversal of any portion of the order, and alleged no facts entitling claimant to further relief in this matter. Order No. 25-UI-290883 was favorable to claimant because it held that claimant was not discharged by the employer for misconduct and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the discharge. However, it can be reasonably inferred that claimant filed the application for review because the Department issued decision # L0010600014 on April 30, 2025, one day after Order No. 25-UI-290883 was issued. EAB presumes the issuance of decision # L0010600014 by OED was an error and part of a known computer glitch OED is resolving. Claimant may verify this with OED. Claimant may file a request for reconsideration with EAB if the issuance of decision # L0010600014 was not in error.

Because EAB’s review of Order No. 25-UI-290883 could not provide substantive relief to the appellant, such review would have no practical effect on the appellant’s rights. Accordingly, there is no justiciable controversy before EAB based upon claimant’s application for review. Because the case before EAB presents no justiciable controversy, the application for review of Order No. 25-UI-290883 is dismissed and Order No. 25-UI-290883 remains undisturbed.

DECISION: The application for review filed May 8, 2025 is dismissed. Order No. 25-UI-290883 remains undisturbed.
