

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2025-EAB-0285

Application for Review Dismissed
No Justiciable Controversy

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 14, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant was not available to work from March 2 through 8, 2025 and therefore was not eligible for benefits for that week (decision # L0009647203). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On May 8, 2025, ALJ Rackstraw conducted a hearing and issued Order No. 25-UI-291795, reversing decision L0009647203 by concluding that claimant was available for work from March 2 through 8, 2025 and was not ineligible for benefits for that week, if otherwise eligible. On May 12, 2025, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's written argument included with her application for review.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 25-UI-291795, issued on May 8, 2025, concluded that claimant was available for work the week of March 2 through 8, 2025 and was not ineligible for benefits for that week, if otherwise eligible.

(2) The Department's records show that on May 9, 2025, the Department issued decision # L0010676250, purporting to amend decision # L0009647203 but stating the same conclusions regarding claimant's availability for work from March 2 through 8, 2025 and denial of benefits for that week as decision # L0009647203.¹

(3) On May 12, 2025, claimant filed an application for review of Order No. 25-UI-291795 with EAB in response to the Department issuing decision # L0010676250.

¹ EAB has taken notice of this fact, which is contained in Employment Department records. OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, stating why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the noticed fact will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant’s application for review of Order No. 25-UI-291795 presents no justiciable controversy and is dismissed.

On May 12, 2025, claimant filed with EAB an application for review of an order that was fully favorable to claimant. Oregon courts follow the principle that a review on appeal may only be provided for justiciable controversies. See, e.g., Gortmaker v. Seaton, 252 Or. 440, 442, 450 P.2d 547 (1969). A justiciable controversy exists when the interests of the parties to the action conflict with each other, and the appeal will have some practical effect on the rights of the parties to the controversy. Barcik v. Kubiacyk, 321 Or 174, 895 P2d 765 (1995). To show a practical effect on their rights, an appellant must seek “substantive relief” through their appeal. Krisor v. Henry, 256 Or. App. 56, 300 P.3d 199 (Or. Ct. App. 2013).

Claimant did not assign error to any portion of Order No. 25-UI-291795, did not request reversal of any portion of the order, and alleged no facts entitling claimant to further relief in this matter. Order No. 25-UI-291795 was favorable to claimant because it held that claimant was available for work during the week of March 2 through 8, 2025. However, claimant’s application for review can reasonably be understood as a request to enforce Order No. 25-UI-291795 because the Department erroneously issued decision # L0009647203 on May 9, 2025, again denying claimant benefits for the week of March 2 through 8, 2025. EAB presumes the issuance of decision # L0010512897 by OED was an error and part of a known computer glitch OED is resolving. Claimant may verify this with OED. Claimant may file a request for reconsideration with EAB if the issuance of decision # L0010676250 was not in error.

Because EAB’s review of Order No. 25-UI-291795 could not provide substantive relief to the appellant, such review would have no practical effect on the appellant’s rights. Accordingly, there is no justiciable controversy before EAB based upon claimant’s application for review. Because the case before EAB presents no justiciable controversy, the application for review of Order No. 25-UI-291795 is dismissed and Order No. 25-UI-291795 remains undisturbed.

DECISION: The application for review filed May 12, 2025 is dismissed. Order No. 25-UI-291795 remains undisturbed.
