

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2025-EAB-0300

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 4, 2025, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not available for work because they did not have legal authority to work in the United States, and was therefore ineligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits effective February 9, 2025 (decision # L0009503538). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On March 21, 2025, ALJ S. Lee issued Order No. 25-UI-286896, dismissing claimant's request for hearing because it was withdrawn. On April 10, 2025, Order No. 25-UI-286896 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On May 20, 2025, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 25-UI-286896 with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of the statement included with claimant's late application for review, has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to EAB taking notice of this information must send their objection to EAB in writing, saying why they object, within ten days of EAB mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless EAB receives and agrees with the objection, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDING OF FACT: (1) Order No. 25-UI-286896, mailed to claimant on March 21, 2025, stated, "You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed." Order No. 25-UI-286896 at 1. Order No. 25-UI-286896 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, "Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before April 10, 2025, to be timely."

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late application for review of Order No. 25-UI-286896 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ended. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 25-UI-286896 was due by April 10, 2025. Because claimant did not file their application for review until May 20, 2025, the application for review was late. Claimant provided a written statement with the application for review. However, claimant’s written statement did not describe the circumstances that prevented them from filing the application for review on time.¹ Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for the late application for review, and claimant’s late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed May 20, 2025 is dismissed. Order No. 25-UI-286896 remains undisturbed.

¹ The statement expressed disagreement with the conclusion of decision # L0009503538 that claimant was not available for work because they did not have legal authority to work in the United States. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. The record suggests that claimant withdrew their request for hearing on that decision because they mistakenly believed that the Department had resolved the issue in their favor. Claimant may still contact the Department to attempt to resolve the issue by resubmitting proof of their legal authority to work in the United States, or requesting additional review of proof that has already been submitted. EAB’s decision does not preclude the Department from amending decision # L0009503538 on its own initiative.
